

Faculty

Mrs. M. Riffe

Mrs. Marian Riffe, the wife of our Business Manager, is also teaching this year. The hidden talents are just coming to light. This is the first year that the faculty wives have become part of the faculty.

Sis. Riffe teaches Child Study (she should know something about that, she raised two boys); Prayer and Divine Healing.

When our cook fell and was injured so that she could not work, Sis. Riffe filled in in the kitchen.

I don't know how she does it, but somehow she always finds time for a group of students that just might put in an appearance at any time. Many times, from seemingly no where, she'll produce cookies or some other good thing to eat.

Everyone feels at home at the Riffe's.

Faculty

Mrs. Caroline Kesler is the wife of our Dean. She is teaching practical subjects on children's work and does a mighty fine job of it, too.

Sis. Kesler is also Dean of Women. All of the girls take their problems to her and somehow, after it has been talked over and prayed over, it doesn't seem half so bad.

A warm welcome awaits one in the Kesler home.
