

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Miss Kathryn Loucks, Music Director

ager of the school
itor.
er and Family.

Williams have
uth of God's Train up a child
ild go and when
ot depart from
vo children on
n missionary work
are in the Lord's
and,
uce Williams

Music, which is the "language the soul," plays an important part in school life.

Many students come to L. P.
S. with a very limited knowledge of music having never had chance to actively participate musical events. They thoroughly enjoy the opportunity that our music department affords to learn, sing, and to play to the Glory of God and make music an active part of their lives.