

Where can a busy music teacher find a place of peace and quiet? Miss Loucks like to crochet and listen to the radio when she has a few spare moments in her well-filled day of teaching and practicing with special musical groups.

Rev. Faulkner, a new member of our faculty this year, is on his way to a class. We really enjoy his friendly and pleasant personality. He is the head of our practical program and is very efficient.

Mrs. Kesler, our Dean of Women, is a very wonderful person to know. Her Sunday School classes are thoroughly enjoyed by the students. She is also kept busy as grandmother, when her grandchildren come to visit. Her pleasing personality endears her to the hearts of all.
