

Valedictorian
Connie Lundstrom

Salutatorian
Lowell Lundstrom

Connie was born and raised near Sisseton, South Dakota. After meeting Lowell she invited him to church. The next night in April of 1957 she accepted Christ along with Lowell. Since that time they have traveled as an evangelistic team. Next to singing, packing for week-end trips occupies the greatest share of her free time.

To be a successful singer and musician in the entertainment world was the greatest aim of Lowell during his childhood days on a farm near Peever, South Dakota. When organizing his dance band and appearing on his own radio and T.V. shows, a great event took place in his life, he accepted Christ as his Savior. Since his conversion the Lowell has used his talents as an evangelist and song writer. Next to his love for music, duck hunting has occupied quite a portion of his fall week-ends.
