

The quality of Mrs. Beckstrand's cooking can readily be seen by the eagerness of the students to get in the lunch line. Mrs. Beckstrand is from Devils Lake and has been the school cook the second semester.

Not all good cooks are professional, but they can sure try. Don and Dick are busily engaged in making their favorite cookies, "chocolate chip."

In the classification of cooks, Emelia would be listed with the "young hopefuls." According to Emelia, the most important requirement is a "half pint" measure.

