

The potter delights in forming beautiful vessels of clay. I thoroughly delight in helping to develop young lives into beautiful, mature, sanctified temples of the Holy Ghost.

Dean, Rev. W. H. Kesler

I am so glad Christ said, "Come unto me," what an open door that presents for waiting, praising, intercession and fellowship. My desire is to accept this blessed invitation.

Mrs. W. H. Kesler

I would so live in communion with Christ that when I proclaim His word there may be no secret fault to take the light from my eye, the sing from my voice, nor the joy from my heart.

Rev. L. A. Miller

