

Time for fun and relaxation is planned by the Social Committee for the student body. Representatives from each class along with Advisor Doris Nixon work hard to make each event a success.

