Keith Green's Final Message:

Why YOU Should Go To The MISSION FIELD

Part I: The Call of The Lord

A Biblical Look at The Missions Call

I recently returned from visiting some overseas missionary bases, and I must say that since returning, my life has not been quite the same. The vision and goals of our ministry have suddenly changed. The Lord definitely did something to my heart on that trip. Besides showing me how small my vision had been, He began to give me a great burden to see the ranks of His army in the field swell!

One of the greatest things God opened my eyes to was how tremendously evangelized my own country was, while the rest of the world was barely being reached. As I traveled from country to country, I thought of the millions of people I was passing through who needed to have the Gospel of Jesus shown to them in a real way—and yet there was hardly anyone there to reach them.

As I visited each mission base, I spoke with different missionaries, and picked up various pieces of literature that told the story of what was being done in different parts of the world to expand the Kingdom of God. As I read the statistics, I was shocked—I really had never known how little the need was being met!

When I returned home, I got hold of some of the leaders of different missionary organizations and set up some meetings to find out more about what was being done to fill the need. After these meetings, I decided to do a study of God's Word (to see what He had to say about reaching the lost in other countries), and I also read through some more of the missions literature I had been given.

This article is the result of that study, and also a burning desire in my heart to see 100,000 young people released to the mission field over the next five years!

*"The harvest is plentiful,
but the workers are few.
Therefore, beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest."* (Matt. 9:37-38)

So...why should you go to the mission field?

1) Because Jesus has told you to

"Go into ALL the world and preach the Gospel to ALL creation." (Mark 16:15)

With these words, Jesus made it clear exactly what His disciples were to do—they were to spread His teachings in His name, preaching salvation unto the ends of the earth. (Rom. 10:18) If you consider yourself a "believer," then you must consider yourself a "disciple" of Jesus—no less called and chosen than the very first 12 apostles. There are no such things as "1st class" Christians and "2nd class" Christians—every believer is called to spread the Good News about Jesus to those who have not yet heard. Jesus' command is definite and clear—it is His great mandate, His "Great Commission" to the soldiers in His holy army. We must go, because our great General has commanded us to go.

2) You should go because the need is so great.

"The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore, beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest." (Matt. 9:37-38)

Ever since Jesus first spoke these compassionate words, the supply of workers in the fields of soul-harvest has always been horribly low. But today the need is the greatest it has ever been in the history of mankind.

Remember, Hell is not just for the weekend! More people are alive today, and more souls are at stake, than the total number of people who have ever lived on the face of the earth in all of human history! This simply means that we can populate either Heaven or Hell by our obedience or our laziness. There are over 2,700,000,000 people who have never heard the Gospel at all, and there are only 5,000 to 7,000 missionaries worldwide, working directly with these totally unreached groups of people.¹ That means there is approximately one missionary for every 450,000 of these people! There are over 16,000 different and distinct cultures and people-groups—even whole countries, where not one single church is in existence.² There are 7,010 distinct living languages, and 5,199 of them still have no Bible or Scripture translations available in their own language!³ Do these figures move you at all? Does it matter to you that an estimated 80,000 unsaved people die every day (approximately 3,333 every hour...55 people every single minute!) to face the judgement seat of Christ?⁴

3) You should go because so few Christians are obeying the call, making the need even greater!

"Faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ...how shall they hear without a preacher?" (Rom. 10-17,14)

Right now worldwide there are only 85,000 workers on the mission field—working mainly among those who have heard the Gospel before.⁵ This figure includes missionaries from all over the world of every nationality. When you compare this number with the amount of Americans selling Avon or Amway products, it is staggering. Just in America alone there are 435,000 Avon sales-people⁶ (with 1,280,000 worldwide), and over 750,000 Amway products distributors⁷ (with over a million worldwide)! Do you realize that these two companies combined have 14 times more representatives in the United States alone than the Church of Jesus Christ has in the whole world outside of America?

And what about the Christian representatives we do have in the world? Only 9% of the world's population speaks English, and yet 94% of all ordained preachers in the whole world minister to the 9% who speak English. And 96% of all Christian finances are spent in the United States on 6% of the world's population. Only 4% of all Christian money is spent on missionary efforts to reach the other 94% of the world's population! There are over 1,000,000 full-time Christian workers in the United States; while one half of the world's population (3 major groups—Moslem, Hindu, and Chinese), 2,200,000,000 people, have only 2,417 full-time Christian workers.⁸ As you can see by these figures, something is definitely wrong. While we in America have approximately one worker for every 230 people—those who have never heard the Gospel even once have one worker for every 450,000 souls! Please forgive us, Jesus, for being too timid to obey You and reach out into all the world like You have commanded us to!

4) You should go because God gives special anointing and grace to those who leave their own land, people and culture to do God's will and spread the Gospel.

"And the Lord said to Abram, 'Go forth from your country and from your relatives, and from your father's house...and I will bless you and make your name great; and so you shall also be a blessing; and I will bless those that bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'" (Gen. 12:1-3)

Abram (later to be renamed Abraham by God) is only one of the many people in the Bible who God used mightily only after he left his own people, his own land, and his own culture. Look at the travels and ministries of people like Jacob and Moses—both of whom had to go into other lands to learn from God and be used by Him.

No matter where you look in the Bible, God always gave a great anointing and blessing to those who served Him in a foreign land. Look at Joseph and Daniel. They were the only two men in the Bible who God raised up as successful, secular officials in foreign and heathen cultures—and they remained faithful witnesses and servants of God to the very end, and often at the risk of their very lives!

What about Jonah? He was a good example of someone who didn't want to go to the mission field and preach to the heathens! Stubborn, rebellious and selfish—and yet God "made him an offer he couldn't refuse." (I pray that God would freely move like that in all our lives, "helping" us to make the right decisions about going.)

And then there's the apostle Paul—who had such a burden for his own people and country, Israel. Oh, how he would have loved a ministry among the Jews! But what did God say? "Go! For I will send you far away to the Gentiles." (Acts 22:21) That's what God commanded, and "go" he did. Never was there a missionary like Paul. Take a look at 2 Corinthians 11 if you'd like to see a list of his qualifications:

beatings, imprisonments, stonings, mobs, shipwrecks, the list goes on and on—and so did Paul, obeying his Master who bought him.

From Noah to Abraham, from Moses to Jonah, from Daniel to Paul, God has always given special blessing to those who, leaving the comforts of home and relatives, cross the boundaries of their little worlds to bring God's message and blessing to the nations.

Remember Jesus' words about this subject, "A prophet is not without honor EXCEPT in his home town." (Matt. 13:57)

5) You should go because America (and some other western nations) is literally drenched with the Gospel, while most other countries and cultures of the world do not have any continual, relevant witness at all.

"And thus I aspired to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build upon another man's foundation; but as it is written, 'They that had no news of Him shall see, and they who have not heard shall understand.'" (Rom. 15:20-21)

It is so true that we here in America are continually bombarded with Christian witness and ministry. Almost at every turn there's a billboard or a bumpersticker proclaiming something about Jesus. Turn the dial on your radio at any time of the day or night, and you've got non-stop preaching. There are several Christian satellite and cable networks. And there are over 250 different Christian magazines and publications. In most cities there's a church on almost every corner. I am not trying to say that this is all bad—a lot of it is good, winning many souls to Jesus—but as I've traveled overseas, it is hard for me to believe that it is God's will for there to be so much gospel preaching and literature available here, while there is comparatively little or even none in many places outside of this country.

The world is going to Hell on every continent! Is it God's fault that so few are hearing the Gospel—or is it the Church's? Aren't we who love Jesus accountable to reach our generation with the Gospel? A friend of mine has written, "This generation of Christians is responsible for this generation of sinners." If this is true, then each of us must take a good, long look at our lives and priorities—finding out where God would have us begin to get ready to go!

6) You should go because, as Oswald J. Smith said, "No one has the right to hear the Gospel twice, while there remains someone who has not heard it once."

"But if our Gospel be hidden, it is hidden to them that are lost: in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of them which believe not, that they might not see the light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God." (2 Cor. 4:3-4)

Has it occurred to you that Jesus wants every creature to hear the Gospel? If you had 20 children to feed and plenty of food to feed them all with, do you think it would be right to give 3 of the children 10 meals, 7 children only 1 meal, and the remaining nothing—causing them to die of starvation? That's exactly what we're doing with the Gospel in the world today!

Because we believers are so deaf to God's call to go into all nations, we keep most of God's resources to ourselves! We keep feeding and reaching the same people over and over again. I am not saying there should be no Gospel preached in America, I am saying that there needs to be a spreading out of the soldiers of God, to fight the enemy where his greatest strongholds are—"where Christ is not already named"!

7) You should go because the time is short. More and more countries are closing their doors to missionaries and the Gospel, and we MUST GO NOW.

"We must work the works of Him who sent Me, as long as it is day; night is coming, when no man can work." (John 9:4)

I constantly hear of country after country where missionaries used to be welcome, but now the doors are closed to them entering. Though it is true that many Christians can still go to be subtle witnesses as doctors, teachers, engineers etc., the Gospel can no longer be openly preached in many lands.

Although there are still vast areas of the world wide open for foreign evangelism, such as western Europe, parts of Asia, and most of the Pacific (Japan, South Korea, Singapore, etc.), there are many other countries where it is illegal to hold a street meeting or pass out gospel literature. We need to sense the urgency of this hour, and obey God by reaching out to those lost in the darkness "while it is still day."

8) You should go because the Holy Spirit is speaking to Christian leadership all over the world that it is God's desire for there to be a great final missionary thrust with the Gospel before the end of the age. It is His desire that every people should have the Gospel preached to them, and that the Gospel should be published in every nation and in every language. And unless YOU get involved personally, there is no hope of that ever happening in our generation!

"...And you shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth." (Acts 1:8) "And this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in the WHOLE world for a witness to ALL the nations, and THEN the end shall come." (Matt. 24:14) "The Lord is...patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance." (2 Pet. 3:9)

Is there any doubt in your mind that God wants everyone to be saved? If you believe this, and you really love Jesus, then WHY are you so timid about getting involved in this great thrust to bring the Gospel to all the nations? Do you think that while you're reading this, God isn't grieved that His Church is being so lazy and disobedient about fulfilling His commission? He knows that you agree with the Scriptures, and He's listening to every excuse that you're turning over in your mind like, "Yes, I know that more people need to go...but He just couldn't mean ME! I'm...just not the 'missionary-type'..."

In Part 2 of "Why YOU should Go To The Mission Field," we will see what "type" of Christian you really are...

Part II: The Most Commonly Heard Excuses

The following objections are just a few of the many that Christian groups and missionary societies constantly hear from prospective recruits for the mission field. Although many may merely be excuses, we have heard them spoken so many times as serious statements from well-meaning Christians in response to the question, "Why don't you get trained to go into full-time Christian service in a foreign country?"

1) "But I'm not called."

You don't know how many people I've met who have said to me, "Keith, I agree that more people need to go to the mission field, but I've never heard God tell me to go."

Well, the truth is that God has already told you to go in His Word. In fact, He commands you to go... "Go YE into ALL the world, and preach the Gospel to EVERY creature." (Mark 17:15) That's right... YOU ARE CALLED!

In fact, if you don't go, you need a specific calling from God to stay home. Has God definitely told you not to "go" somewhere outside your country to preach the Gospel? If He hasn't, then you'd better start praying WHERE to go, instead of IF you should go—for again, you're already called!

2) "But God needs people to stay here to be a witness to those lost in America. There's enough need right here!"

It is true that God has called some people to stay right where they are to be witnesses for Jesus in their daily lives and professions. But again, God is merciful and just. Since America has only about 5% of the world's population, then only about 5% of the believers would really be called to stay in this country as a witness (that's only about 1 out of 20) while the rest of us should go into the parts of the world where there are almost 0% believers. (In Albania, for instance, there are only "a handful" of known believers in the whole country of 2.7 million people—less than 1/2 of 1/1,000th percent!!)⁹

3) "But God needs people to stay home and financially support those ministries and missionaries who are already all over the world. In fact, my church is already supporting some missionaries with MY tithes and offerings."

You should never have to worry about there not being enough Christians staying home to support missionaries! There will always be enough people around who will not answer the call to go—who will stay home and gladly just send a check (instead of themselves) to reach the lost. After all, nothing is easier to give than money (except nothing!).

This does not mean that everyone who stays home is selfish and disobedient. As I've already said, there are some who know they are definitely called to stay, and they are doing exactly what God would have them do here, while they greatly support other ministries. I'm just saying that there will always be plenty of people around to financially support the pitifully few who answer the call and obey God.

4) "But my family and friends would frown upon me going."

"He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me..." (Matt. 10:37)

God is very clear about whose approval we should seek. It's shocking to me how even Christian parents react when their children say that they'd like to go for training as a full-time Christian worker. "A missionary! Are you crazy?!" It's as if they've announced they'd like to be a thief or a prostitute.

It is true that God wants us to honor our parents and love our friends, but He has also made it clear in His Word that this honor and love must not exceed our love and obedience to Him and His calling on our lives. We should always try our best to explain God's call to our families, lovingly and patiently, but the bottom line must be that we will obey Christ no matter WHAT the cost. We should always try to get our family's understanding and blessing when God makes our ministry clear to us, but we must also always be ready to leave "houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or farms" for His sake "and for the Gospel's sake." (Mark 10:29)

5) "But I need to stay here and lead my relatives to the Lord first. If I go somewhere else, how can they get saved?"

There once was a man who wanted to follow and obey Jesus, but he said to Him, "Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father." Jesus' answer to him was, "Follow Me; and allow the dead to bury their own dead." (Matt. 8:21-22)

This may sound cruel of Jesus not to allow the man to have a funeral for his dead father—but most likely, the man's father had not died yet. The phrase "wait until I bury my father" was sometimes used to say "wait until my father has died." What he was really saying was, "I'd like to follow You now, but You see, my parents wouldn't understand. Please wait until after they've died, and then I'll be more than glad to follow You!"

Jesus' answer was appropriate..."allow the dead to bury their own dead." In other words, "allow the unbelievers to take care of themselves, and follow Me!" Jesus doesn't want us to throw our usefulness away because our relatives are not yet saved. The greatest witness they can see is you fully obeying the call of God on your life. Jesus didn't want this man's father to be buried—He wanted the young man to follow Him, and then maybe even the man's father would come to know Him too. Obedience is truly greater than sacrifice (1 Sam. 15:22)—when we obey God, He takes care of all our other obligations. (Matt. 6:33)

6) "But I need to get an education first."

I don't believe that God wants every Christian to go to college just because, "Well, everyone goes to college now, unless they're too dumb!" You shouldn't go to college unless God has definitely called you to go. Just like everything else in our Christian lives, He's the Master, we're the servants. He's the General, we're the soldiers. If you're really a Christian, you're at the beckoned command of the King. If you're not at His command, then you're really not a Christian.

Yes, God does call some people to go to college. Sometimes it's to get training for a ministry calling He's made clear to them. For instance, if you know what country you're called to, perhaps God would lead you to learn the language and culture somewhat before you go (although the very best place to learn is within the country itself—it's a definite "crash course"!).

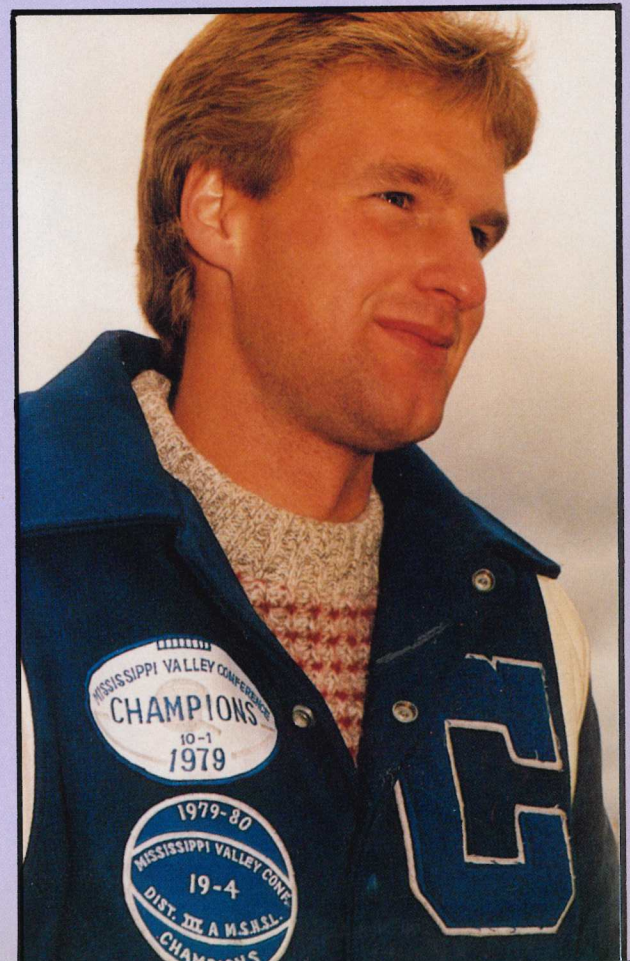

Of course, another reason God might lead you to college is to minister to people right there on the campus—as well as to mature emotionally and spiritually. But be careful! Make sure you're there in direct obedience to God, or else you're wasting your time—and His.

7) "But I need to get married first, and then maybe my mate will want to serve God full-time on the field, rather than me going alone."

Nothing could be a more foolish reason for putting off obeying God now. God does not want you to look for a husband or wife, He wants you to be married to Him, and trust Him for any mate He may bring into your life. I know of many single Christians serving Jesus overseas who are trusting Him for everything. And some of the most beautiful stories of God's grace I've ever heard are told by couples who went to the mission field single, and then God led them to marry another whose heart was also fully devoted to serving Him there. Remember, "Your Father knows what you need BEFORE you ask Him." (Matt. 6:8) Trust Him!

8) "But I have a family to support. God doesn't want me to neglect them, does He?"

The Word of God says, "Seek first His Kingdom and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added to you." (Matt. 6:33) If you can trust God for your needs, you can certainly trust Him for your family's needs. You would never be foolishly "neglecting" your family's needs by obeying God's call to go. God will show you the way. I know of so many families—some with many children—who are on the field right now, trusting God for their needs while they minister in His name. I have never heard of ONE occurrence where God didn't meet the needs of one of His servants and their families. As King David said...

I have been young, and now I am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, or his descendants begging bread. All day long he is gracious and lends; and his descendants are a blessing." (Psalm 37:25-26)

9) "But the mission field is dangerous. God would not have me put myself or my family in danger of disease or native hostilities, would He?"

"Why is the Lord bringing us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder; would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?" (Num. 14:3)

It is all a matter of our priorities—do we look at the temporary or the eternal in making our choices? It's true that you will probably be in more physical danger on the mission field than you would be in the suburbs of America, but that is part of the cost that we need to count when it comes to serving God. The question should not be, "Will I be kept safe wherever I go?" but rather, "What is on the Lord's heart for me to do?"

If Jesus decided to go the way of least pain, He would have never gone to the cross.

There is no place of greater blessing for you than in the center of God's will. You must stop to count the cost, but remember one thing—the privilege of serving God always outweighs the price! "If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it; BUT WHOEVER LOSES HIS LIFE FOR MY SAKE AND THE GOSPEL'S SHALL SAVE IT." (Mark 8:34-35)

10) "Although in the past most countries freely allowed foreign missionaries to come, most people in other lands now resent them. Why should I go where I'm not welcomed?"

Did you welcome the Gospel before you were saved? The Word says that we should save some, "snatching them out of the fire." (Jude 23) Some people just don't want to be saved! That's exactly why we need to go to them. The more unwelcomed, the better. If they resent Americans, then you have to show them that Christian

Americans can be humble with the love of Jesus in their hearts. For the Word says, "He who is wise wins souls." (Prov. 11:30)

11) "But I could not afford to get the training, and raise the necessary finances to place myself (or my family) on the field."

Don't worry, God'll help raise the money you need. Wherever God guides, He supplies—even if it means helping you get a job! Problems and worries about finances are usually only a surface excuse when it comes to obeying God to go. In your heart you know He'll make a way for you!

12) "But I don't have any special talents or abilities that would qualify me to be a missionary."

Then you're just the person God is looking for! Sure God can use nurses, teachers, accountants, and mechanics on the field, but it always blesses God to greatly use the one who seemingly has nothing to offer. It is this person who has the opportunity of purely representing Jesus in the endless

"common" tasks that are part of the daily life of a missionary. "When I am weak, THEN I am strong." (2 Cor. 12:10; also see 1 Cor. 1:26-31)

13) But how could I commit myself for years and years to go to the field without having a chance to see what it would be like?"

It is true that in past generations a foreign missionary had to make almost a lifetime commitment before he could go to the field. Then in most cases, he had to go to college for at least four years, and then seminary for two to four years before he could even begin his missions training and service. But today there are missionary organizations that have short-term programs for people who want to receive training and find out what serving God in other countries is like. These programs last from a few weeks to a few years in length. So now there is an opportunity to "take a look" before making a much longer commitment.

14) "But God wants me to stay in this country and prosper. The reason the rest of the world is so poor and unconverted is because their heathen religions and idolatry have caused them to live in ignorance and poverty, without God's blessing."

This has to be THE most selfish reasoning I've ever heard for not going—and I've heard it! Of course they live in ignorance and poverty, that's just the very reason you should go—to bring the enlightenment that comes from knowing the truth about Jesus, and to bring them the true riches of knowing Christ. If you don't believe that the reason God has blessed you with abundance in this country is so you can be a blessing to others—then you have never understood the Gospel of Jesus Christ! "Freely you received, freely GIVE." (Matt. 10:8)

15) "I'm just not ready to make that kind of a sacrifice and commitment."

Ah! That's just the point. That's probably the underlying reason for almost every one of the above objections. In fact, you might just as well have said, "I'm not willing." You need to decide whether or not you are a disciple of Jesus—that is the question. If you are His disciple, then "you are NOT YOUR OWN ...you have been bought with a price." (1 Cor. 6:19-20) And if you truly love Him, then you will not feel bondage, you will feel incredible excitement at being chosen to represent Him in the world! To be a servant of Jesus Christ, an ambassador, a missionary, is the highest calling a man or woman can attain to! Now what are you waiting for??

This year the Senior Class is proud to dedicate the yearbook to Dr. Dayton Kingsriter. We feel that he has made enormous contributions to every member of our class.

Dr. Kingsriter has been a model that all of us can shape our lives and ministries after. He shows a balance between academics and spirituality that the entire school admires. In addition, Dr. Kingsriter has provided guidance and direction through his words of advice. We are proud to have Dr. Kingsriter as our academic dean.

Appreciation

Who do you know that would be up days and nights and full days again, working on stacks of papers that weren't his own? Who would spend hours at the chapel seeking God for the financial needs of others? Who do you know that takes his work as Financial Aid Director and fulfills that work faithfully and unreservedly as unto the Lord?

Yes, a Trinity graduate. A man and his family dedicated to living Colossians 3:23-24. Brother Sherwin Hibbets, thank you for your service, your patience and your example. We appreciate you!

In Memory

G. L. RIFFE

Known to many as "Mr. Campmeeting," "Golden Lafayette" Riffe was born in Waverly, MN on April 7, 1902. He was educated in Waverly Public schools. After graduation he left Waverly for Leeds, ND where he worked in a dry cleaning and tailoring shop. He later moved to Minnewaukan where he met and married Marian Burges. Two sons were born to this union, George and Gordon.

Rev. Riffe worked for the Northern Pacific Railroad for a number of years and in 1934 went into the ministry at Grenora, ND. In 1937, the family moved to Cando, ND. In 1943, Riffes moved to Rolette to pastor the church and then to Devils Lake where he pastored until he became Secretary-Treasurer of the North Dakota District Council. After pastoring in Libby, Montana for two years, he became pastor of Jamestown Assembly in 1959 through 1963. It was during this time that the North Dakota District Council decided to build a retirement center and nursing home in Jamestown. Upon the completion of their first project, Rev. Riffe was appointed Executive Director of this project. In 1963, he resigned as pastor of Jamestown Assembly and became the fulltime director of the program. Under his direction, homes were built in Cando and Carrington. In 1977, he became the President and Administrator of Hi-Acres Manor and operated the facility as its administrator until 1981. The facility was sold in 1982 to 3-R's Heritage Nursing Center, Ltd, a family owned corporation.

Rev. Riffe was special to many people. Everyone who ever encountered Rev. Riffe knew that his greatest mission on earth was to lead them to a realization of Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. He always enjoyed every opportunity to read God's word and share his experience with them. He was one of the founding fathers of Lakewood Park Bible College, which is now Trinity Bible College. He also taught there for a number of years. Whenever an opportunity arose for him to fill in for a pastor in an Assembly of God church, Methodist, or Baptist, he always jumped at the chance. It was like giving him extra vitamins to be in the pulpit. He enjoyed serving God which in turn allowed him to serve mankind.

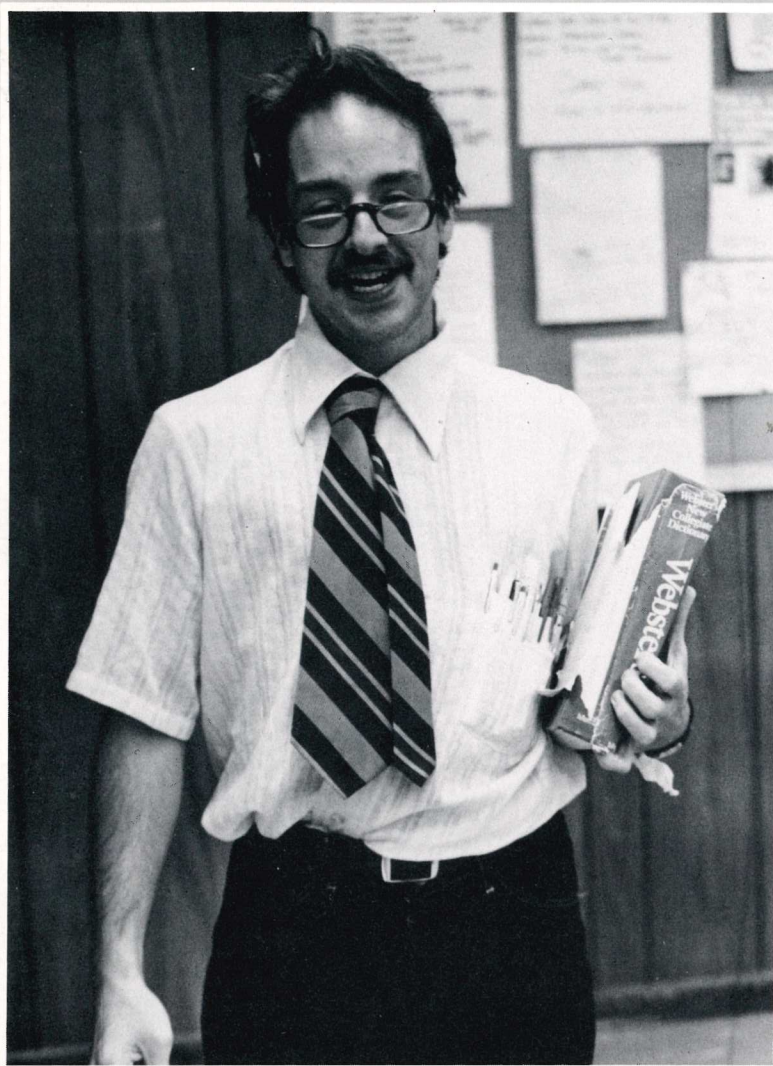

Rev. Riffe was travelling with his granddaughter, Yvonne, and her husband, Chris, enroute to Rapid City. While resting during the trip, he slept into the presence of the Lord. We are sure he heard the words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, COME HOME."

Fall Missionary Convention

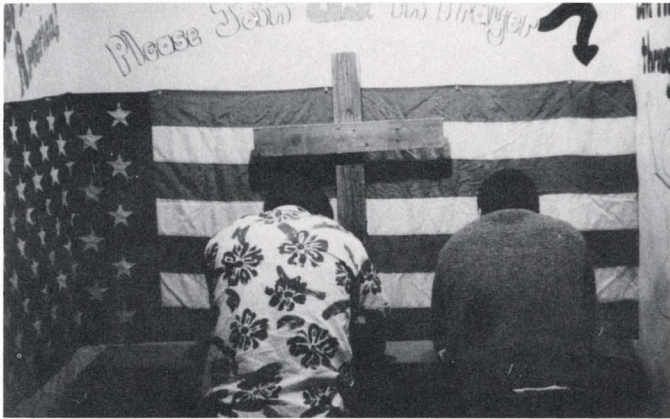

"Appointed to Pray, Be a prayer missionary" was this year's Fall Missionary Convention theme. The convention took place November 14-17 and the convention speaker was David Grant.

Spring Missions Convention

Trinity's 1986 Spring Missions Convention was held February 25-26. The theme this year: "Love the World Through Me." The main goal of the convention was to make Trinity students aware of the desperate need to reach Muslims with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Missionary Delmar Kingsriter, who spent 30 years in East Africa helping lead Muslims to the Lord, was the guest speaker. Since 1984, he has served as director of the Assemblies of God Center of Ministry to Muslims.

STUDENT MINISTRIES

Student Ministries

Evangelism is the heartbeat of Trinity Bible College. This year Trinity students shared Christ with thousands and saw hundreds accept Christ as their personal Saviour.

Wahpeton Invasion

It was almost like battle—one hundred young troops moving into a city. They weren't there to fight men, but to win men and women to Jesus Christ. The troops were Trinity students, armed with the Word of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, going from door to door canvassing Wahpeton, North Dakota with the Gospel. Dan Miller, pastor of the First Assembly of God, invited the outreach ministry of Trinity to make the invasion. After three Saturdays of canvassing, over 1,500 people had been contacted. Most received tracts with the Good News of Salvation through Jesus Christ as Saviour. Twenty-eight people received Christ as Saviour, and two were baptized in the Holy Spirit.

Street and Prison Ministries

Trinity's street and prison ministries were led by Roy Pettyjohn. Every weekend the street witnessing team shared Christ with people in area cities.

SPORTS MINISTRY

Football

Year number two in the history of Trinity football began with much anticipation and ended with a new experienced and viable football program in the state of North Dakota and the upper Midwest. Although finishing without a victory, by the end of the season the players knew that the team had arrived, and were looking forward to an '86 season. With Jesus at the center of each game, the team had many more victories and rewards that can only be found by a team committed to a "Total Release Performance" for the Lord.

Volleyball

The 1985 Trinity Volleyball season could be summarized in many ways: the 1st place conference tie with St. Paul Bible College or the 31-25, win-loss record could be used. The record-breaking season in almost every area statistically could be cited. The tremendous support by the fans also could be a factor, but the outstanding feature that would summarize this season is without a doubt the application of the Total Release Performance principles.

Cross Country

The 1985 Cross Country season was a building year for the men's team, which showed increasing strength throughout the season. Mitch Franklin led the Crusader harriers in a tough schedule which was comprised of mostly invitational meets.

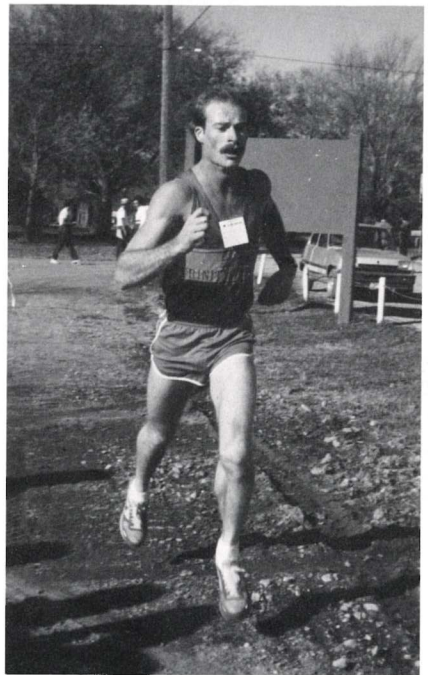

The lady harriers were the strongest team in Trinity's history. Their strength was concealed by a schedule without a dual meet. In conference competition they were 3-0. Angie Thompson led the way in the N.I.C.C. meet with a first place finish and a new course record of 18:54.

Men's Basketball

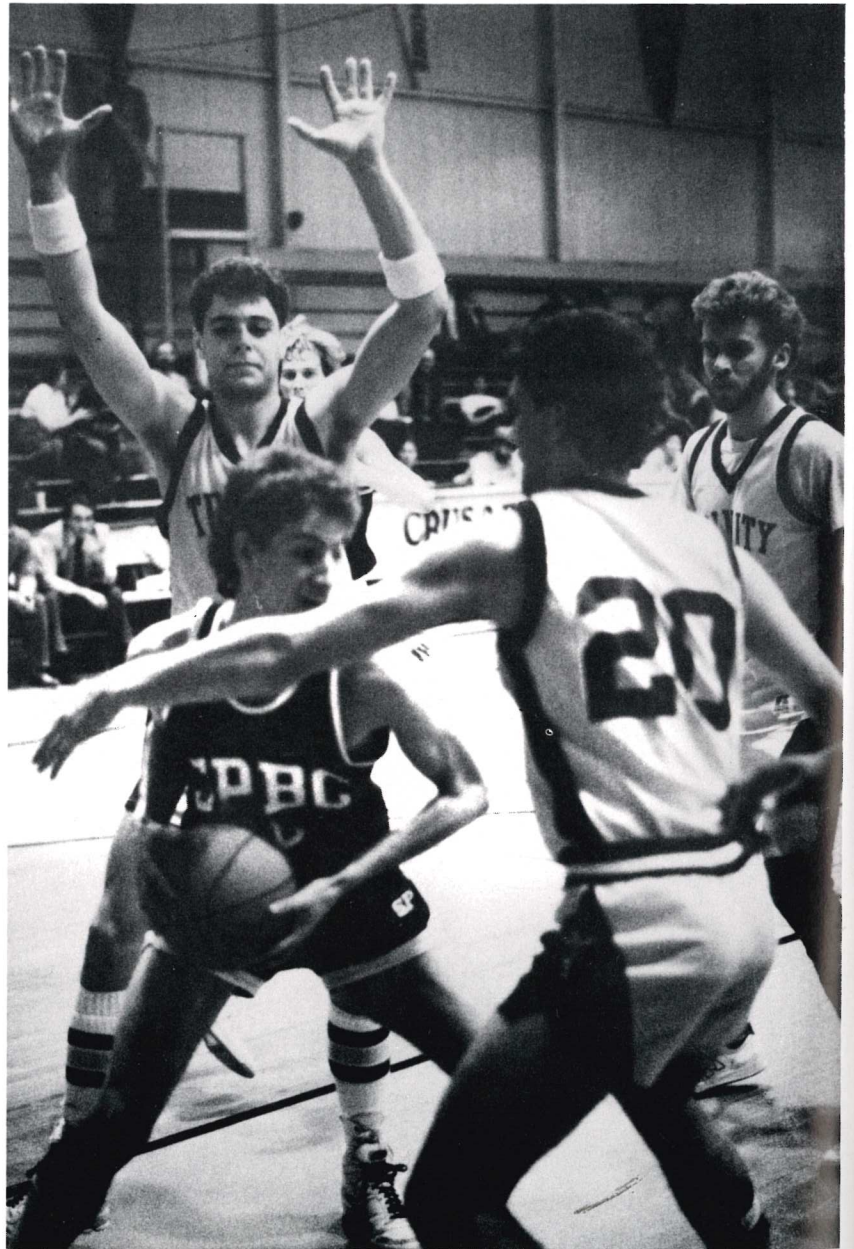

With the loss of three starters from last year's team which finished second at the National Tournament, this season proved to be a rebuilding year for the Crusaders. By tournament time, the team began to show that they will be a force to be delt with in the N.I.C.C. next year. With every victory and loss, the team were ambassadors for the Lord and Trinity that we can all be proud of.

Women's Basketball

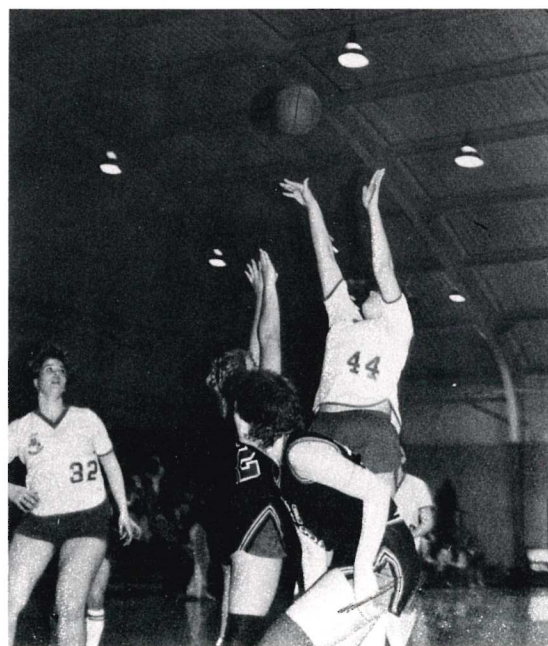

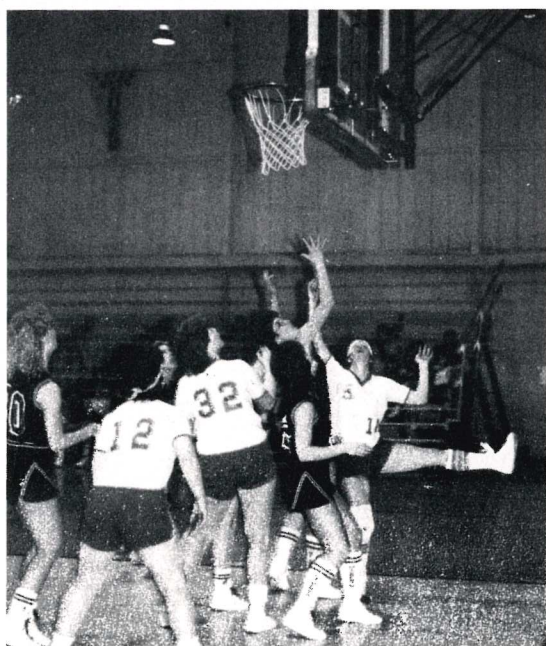

The Lady Crusaders found themselves co-champions with the North Central Chiefs in the N.I.C.C. At the tournament in Owattona, Minnesota, the Lady Crusaders went up against North Central for the third time this season, and for the right to advance to the National finals. The Ladies came up three points short after a hard fought game. But then went on to win their next game to finish third at the Nationals. Next season will find a squad that has become a seasoned team of veterans.

Wrestling

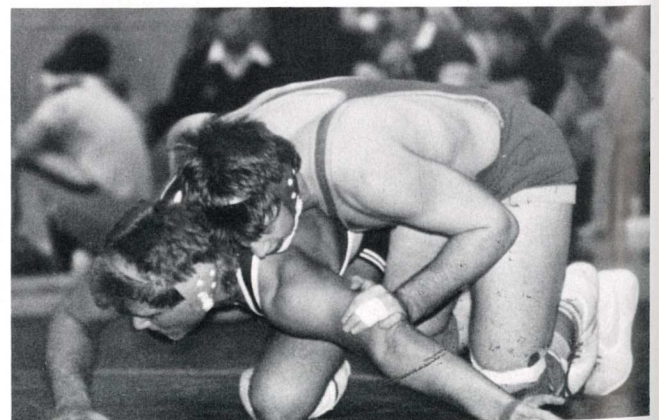

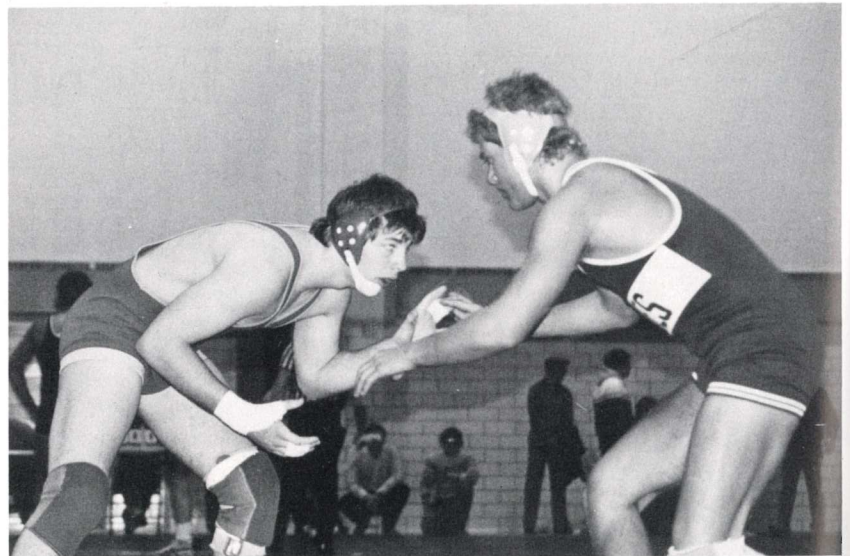

Trinity Bible College's second year of wrestling proved to be a season of valuable experience. While lacking in numbers, the Crusader wrestlers finished the season strong, winning several individual matches against NDSSS. Coach McGuire noted great improvement in the young wrestlers citing Brian Worthing as the most improved wrestler. Other Crusaders that wrestled well were Jeff Kapelle, Jim Eads and Jamie Warne. Gary Moffat placed fourth at the "NDSSS Wildcat Open" but was forced to sit out half the season, along with Lyle Foster, because of injury. Christian maturity was gained through collegiate wrestling for all of these fine athletes.

Tennis

This season was tough for this year's tennis team, but our Crusader men and women were well able to stand their ground. The Crusaders played such schools as Northern, Wahpeton SSS, and Bismarck Junior College.

Not only did the meals provide variety with two entrees, two vegetables, salad bar, fresh fruit, desserts, soup, and a wide assortment of beverages, but also provided an "all-you-can-eat" policy that satisfied many students' large appetites! This first semester manager was Jonathan Almblad and the second semester managers were John Yemma and Howard Huston.

ACTIVITIES

Registration

Registration at Trinity was an assortment of paper work, waiting in lines and meeting new people. But, quiet anticipation stirred as the students waited to begin the new school year.

Ellendale Welcome

Revival

It happened suddenly. A regular chapel service on campus was transformed into an old-fashion Pentecostal revival! Guest speaker Penny Lee, National Right-to-Life President was sharing when the power of the Holy Spirit came down upon the students. They began to confess their sins openly.

The service began at 7 p.m., April 21 and ended 7 a.m., April 23 — 36 hours later. Testimonies were shared, and praises to God echoed the chapel as students danced in the Spirit. The revival also included a powerful healing service. By the following Wednesday afternoon, about 75 students began a victory march around campus. They gathered up several items left at the altar, such as secular magazines, records & tapes, and hauled them to the incinerator.

1986 Graduation

Evangelist Dan Betzer delivered the 1986 graduation address at Trinity's graduation ceremony April 25. Sixty-seven students received diplomas and began new careers for Christ.
