of Successful Ministry in Christ.

REGISTRATION

COME ON HOME!
October 6 & 7, 1988

Trinity celebrated its 40th Anniversary with music, worship, and fellowship with old and new friends. Events included a concert with Janet Paschal and the Lundstrom Singers and Band, a banquet with speaker Sam Johnson, memorabilia rooms from each era of Trinity's history, and chapel services with special music from alumni and stirring ministry of the Word from Lowell Lundstrom and Paul Davidson.

Homecoming began with guests registering in the chapel foyer. It was an exciting time of seeing old friends and renewing acquaintances. Clockwise: Marion Braunberger ('57), Mike Pyle ('75), Barbara & Floyd Beckstrand ('81-'52), and John Mustoe ('88).

PAUL DAVIDSON

The following are portions from the text of Rev. Paul Davidson's message on The Cross given on October 7, 1988 in the Friday morning chapel service during Homecoming.

I Corinthians 11:17-34 deals with the Lord's Supper. I want to focus on one verse—"tarry one for another."

A strong church was built in Corinth in the two to three years that Paul was there. He leaves to begin a ministry in Ephesus. Back in Corinth problems began to spring up. One can only wonder how a church that had such a marvelous beginning could have so many problems in their midst.

They had all received the message of the cross; Christ had died for their sins. They had received the message of the cross; they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts thereof. They had all been baptized by one Spirit into one Body as each were filled with the Holy Spirit. What went wrong?

I Cor. 3:3, "You are yet carnal."

As they moved away from the cross, pride and materialism began to fill their hearts. When they moved away from the cross, they lost a sense of the sinfulness of sin. When they moved away from the cross, their hearts became hard and calloused toward their brethren. When they moved away from the cross, fleshly lust once again became the controlling passion. When they forgot the message of the cross, forgot to take it up daily, they become carnal and walk as men. Their viewpoint becomes that of the flesh and strife and division results.

Confusion marked their day; confusion marks ours today. Why? Is it because we have also moved away from the message of the cross and become carnal like the Corinthian church?

What was Paul's hope of establishing a church in that sinful city of Corinth? One message, the message of the cross. That was the only message that could save them. He knew it was the only message that could restore them and bring them back from their sins.

There is no other answer. Because of the cross, there is no condemnation. Because of the cross, I am free from sin. Because of the cross, the world no longer has a pull in my life. We need to return to its message.

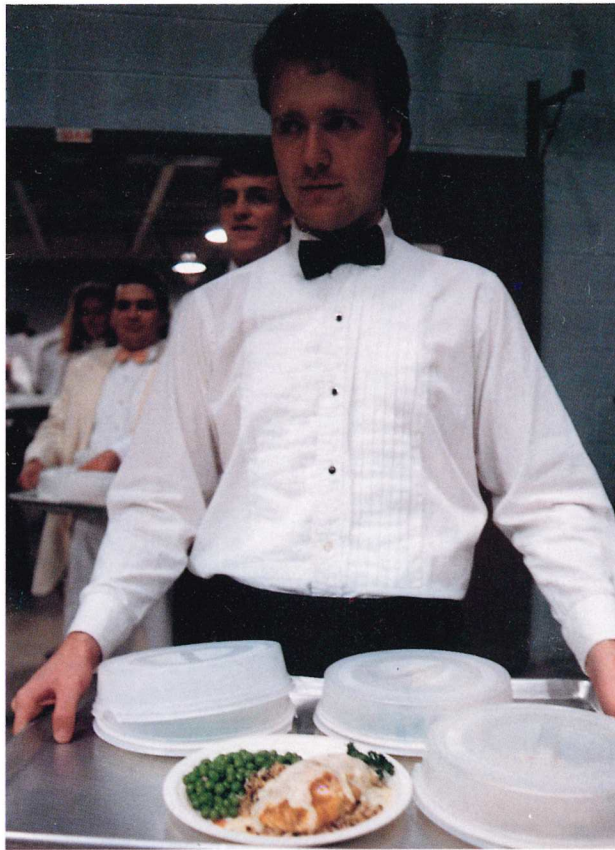

The cross must be taken up daily. There isn't a shred of hope you will ever make heaven if you don't take it up daily. There is no hope you will break from lust or evil sexual desire. The cross, it alone has the power to free you from it all.

Philippians 2:1-5 reads: If therefore there is any encouragement in Christ, if there is any consolation of love, if there is any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and compassion make my joy complete being of the same mind, maintaining the same love, united in spirit intent on one purpose. Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind let each of you regard one another as more important than himself; do not merely look out for your own interests, but also for the interests of others. Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus.

What is lust, but the sacrifice of others for self. What is Christ's view, but the cross and sacrifice of self for others.

Paul Davidson was a Bible Instructor at Trinity from 1969 until 1984.

Come On Home!

Registration on Thursday, October 6, 1988, marked the beginning of Trinity Bible College's 40th Anniversary. Alumni, friends, and faculty from all four eras of Trinity's past gathered together for a time of fellowship, ministry, and celebration. Each person registering received packets containing registration information, commemorative pins, and jewel-colored balloons bearing Trinity's logo. Slim-line New Testaments were also given away.

Thursday's events included a chapel service with President Lowell Lundstrom and special music by alumnus Keith Wagler. Later there was opportunity to visit classes or tour the campus. Memory Rooms from each era included photos, yearbooks, and other memorabilia. Recreational activities included a golf tournament, tennis and volleyball.

Thursday's activities concluded with a concert with Janet Paschal and the Lundstrom Singers and band.

President Lowell Lundstrom hosted a special prayer breakfast Friday morning for all guests and alumni. Keith Wagler ministered in music, and Rev. Lundstrom shared about Trinity's future. He discussed our present needs and the need for a new cafeteria.

The Friday, October 7th, chapel service featured the Pyle Brothers — Mike, Joe, and Nate (TBI 75) in special music. Rev. Paul Davidson, former Bible instructor (TBI 1969-1984), delivered a challenging message from the Word on The Cross. Excerpts are found on page 10.

Friday evening marked a banquet featuring Sam Johnson as guest speaker. Rev. Johnson is an alumnus of Trinity (LPBS '58), former missionary, and current pastor of Heritage Church at Heritage, U.S.A. in Fort Mill, South Carolina. Music was provided by alumni Shari Tufte Rossow (TBI 74), Phyllis Kuno (TBC 76), Morris Warren (TBC 88) and his wife, Alisa, and the Redemption Singers (87).

Rod Eib was honored with special presentation. He was selected as Alumnus of the Year recognition of his hard work for the Alumni Association.

Special recognition was given to Doris Walker, former Assistant Dean of Women. Her late husband, Rev. Peter Walker, was also remembered. He was a Bible instructor for Trinity Bible Institute.

Master of Ceremonies, President Lowell Lundstrom interviewed couples representing each era, and fond memories were recalled by all.

Saturday morning was spent in fellowship at brunch. Alumni and guests were then invited to attend the Tri-Angular Volleyball Tournament with the Trinity Women's Volleyball team.

Homecoming '88 was a time to renew old acquaintances and to make new friends. It was a time to recall old memories and to make new ones.

BIBLICAL STUDIES

Trinity is committed to prepare Christian workers for various areas of ministry and Christian service. As a result, Biblical Studies is the core around which all programs center at Trinity. Biblical Studies becomes the basis of the Christian experience and knowledge with which to interpret all other disciplines. Studies include classes in the Old Testament and New Testament, general Bible, and theology. Classes include studies in doctrine and theology, research and study tools for study of the Bible, as well as surveys and individual studies of books of the Bible.

MINISTERIAL STUDIES

Ministerial Studies involves a double major in combination with the Biblical Studies major. It is for those students who wish to pursue a full-time pastoral or evangelistic ministry or plan further studies at the seminary level. Classes include Principles of Preaching, Ministerial Relations, Church Administration, and Personal Evangelism. The program also includes ministry internship where students have the opportunity to minister in a practical setting under the supervision of an experienced pastor.

Ministerial Studies instructors include: (top) Norm Shuert, (l) Charles Worthington, and (r) Steve Tvedt.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

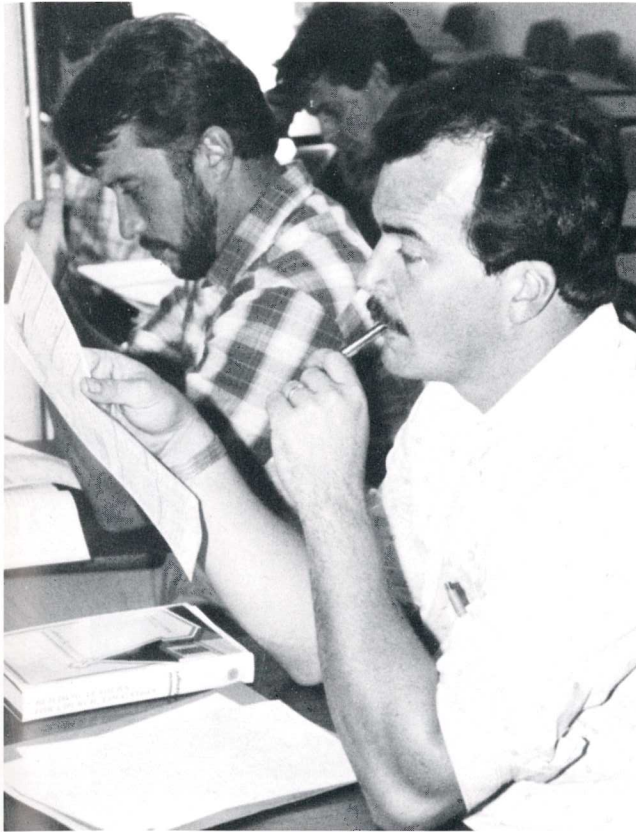

The Elementary Education major combined with the Biblical Studies major gives students a solid Bible background along with the necessary professional education courses to enable them to be skilled Christian teachers in either Christian or public schools. Classes include method courses in education and student teaching field experience.

One of the Elementary Education instructors is Judy Cochran.

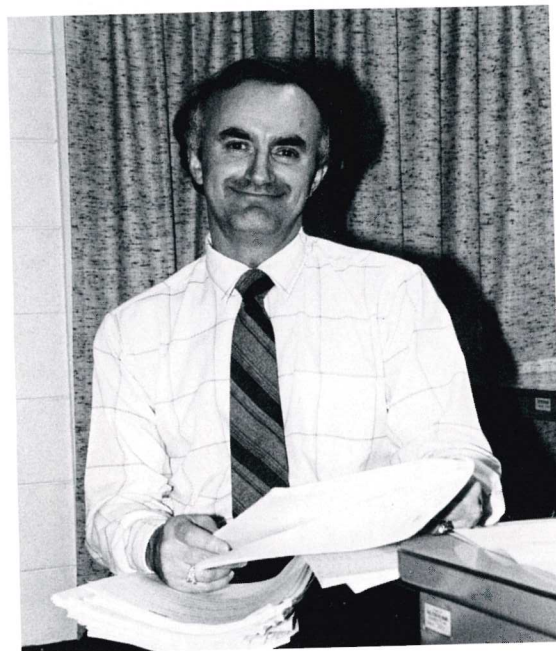

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Christian Education minor is a program designed for students wishing to pursue full-time ministry in Christian Education, to prepare for graduate level work in Christian Education, or to serve the Lord in the Christian Education program of the local church. Courses include foundations in Christian Education, Ministry to Children, Ministry to Youth, and Ministry to Adults.

BUSINESS

Two minors are offered in the business area. The minor in Office Administration is designed to acquaint the student with basic clerical skills and knowledge necessary to obtain employment in a para-church organization. The minor in Business Management is designed to acquaint the student with basic managerial skills to assist a church in handling its business affairs. Instructors include (r) Leroy Kirschenmann, Ermalene Bentz, and Robert Hesling.

HUMAN RELATIONS

The Human Relations minor is a logical combination with the Biblical Studies major for those students wishing to pursue a ministry which requires extra "people skills" training. It is an excellent choice for those interested in non-pastoral para-church ministries. Instructors include (r) Judy Cochran.

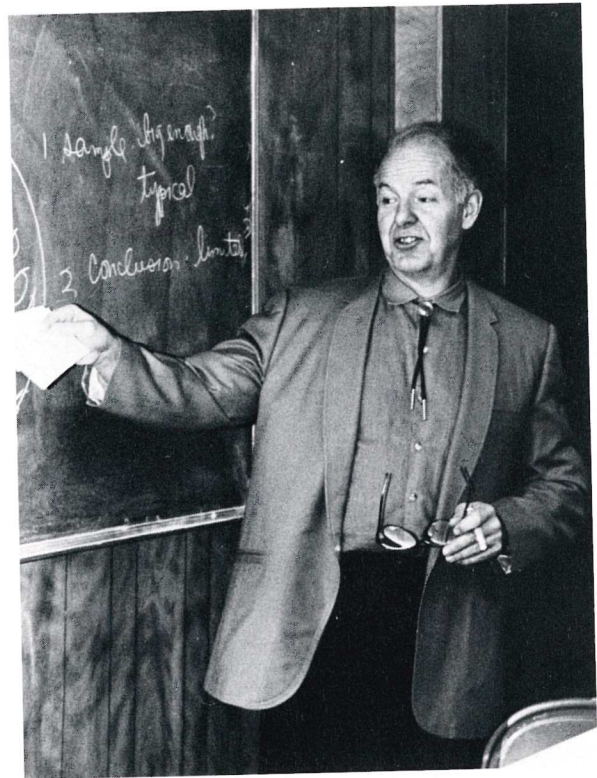

MUSIC

The Music Minor combined with the Biblical Studies major prepares students wishing to pursue a music ministry or who desire to complete a music majors in another college. Dr. Sharon Carbaugh (r & Lower r) is an instructor and Chairperson of the department. Charlotte Hvistendahl (lower l) also teaches.

GENERAL EDUCATION

The general education courses are the academic base upon which the programs of the college are built. Courses are offered in the areas of English, Communications, History, Language, Philosophy, Physical Education, Psychology, Science, and Sociology. In these courses the student discovers a Christian world-view that encompasses and integrates all areas of knowledge and experience. They are given a God-centered understanding of the physical, social, and cultural world.

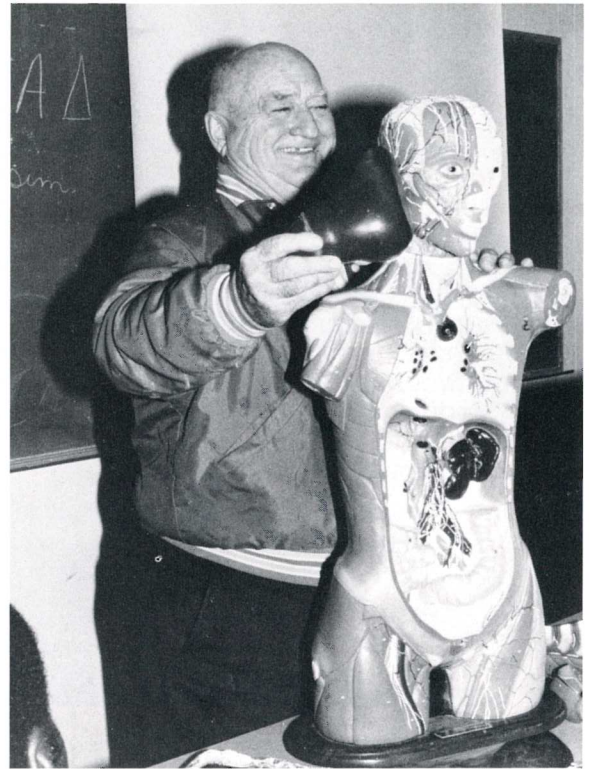

Instructor Jerry Myers teaches in the areas of Speech and English.

Steve Tvedt lectures to students in Personal and Social Development.

Top: Instructor Connie Rice teaches in the areas of English and Psychology. Below: Jerry Myers can often be found helping students in a personal way.

MISSIONS

The missions programs are designed to prepare students for missionary service at home or abroad. A combined Missions Major along with the Biblical Studies Major or a Missions Minor are both offered. Each year a Missionary in Residence teaches in the department. This year it was Mildred Flack (r) from Liberia. Rodney White was another new addition to our Missions department (below l & r).

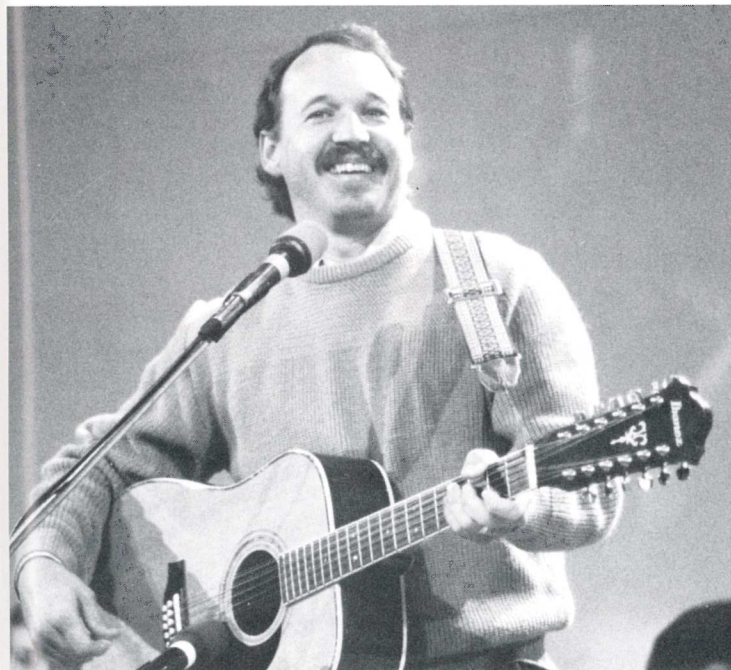

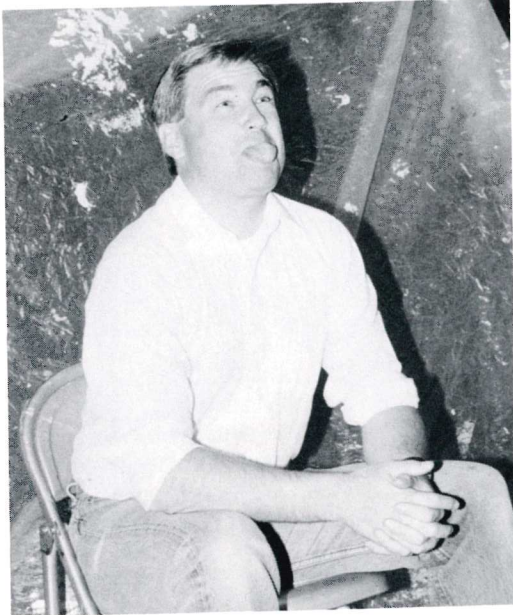

Top: "Doc" Carbaugh relaxes at the piano. Bottom: Coach Keith Wagler enjoys song writing and sharing them with the students.

Top: Charles Worthington was a welcomed new addition to our faculty. Bottom: Sister Flack works on a project for Prayer Bands.

PROFESSORS ARE . . .

"You're asking for it, Brother Tvedt!"

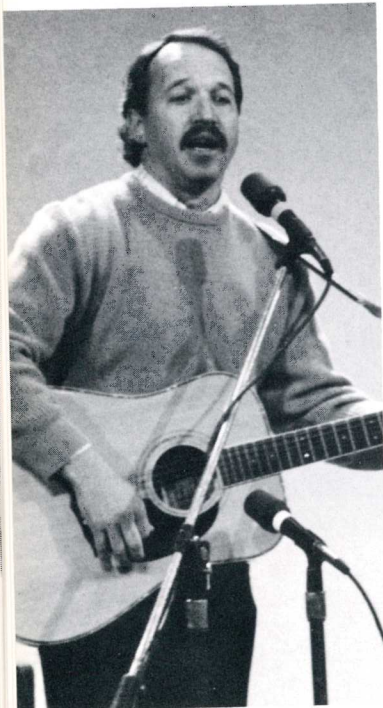

"Hey, I want a balloon, too!!"

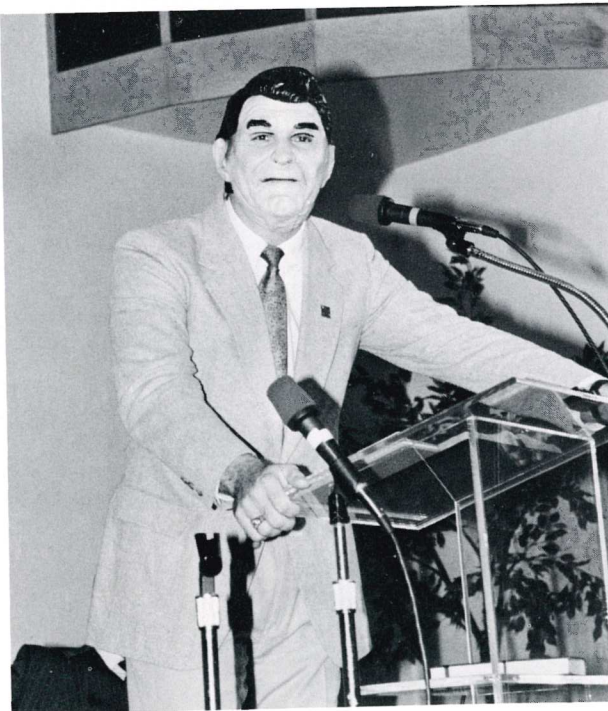

"I'll get Brother Tvedt if it's the last thing I do."

"I received Christ as my Savior at a Billy Graham film, was filled with the Holy spirit at a charismatic prayer meeting, and responded to God's call to ministry by preparing myself at North Central Bible College. The Call of God, the anointing of the Holy Spirit, and proper training are all essential elements of a fruitful ministry. During my five years of pastoral experience, I sensed God's hand upon the teaching aspect of my ministry. It is my desire to communicate to our future pastors a love for God, His word, and His people. I am grateful for the opportunity to teach at Trinity Bible College under the leadership of evangelist Lowell Lundstrom. Trinity not only equips students with the tools necessary for the growth and nurture of the church but also provides the atmosphere and opportunities essential for spiritual growth and ministry."

DEDICATION

Leroy Kirschenmann

Leroy Kirschenmann was chosen by the Senior class for the dedication of this year's annual. Bro. Kirschenmann teaches in the business department and manages the bookstore. School-spirited, he is very involved in student activities. He serves as advisor for Student Association. He greets students with a friendly smile, and can often be found assisting students in the classroom or bookstore. As an advisor, he has a listening ear, and is always available to talk with students about academic or personal matters. He works hard to provide a well stocked book-store with a cheerful and inviting atmosphere. He sets an example in his personal spiritual life as he worships God in chapel services and ministers to students around the altar.

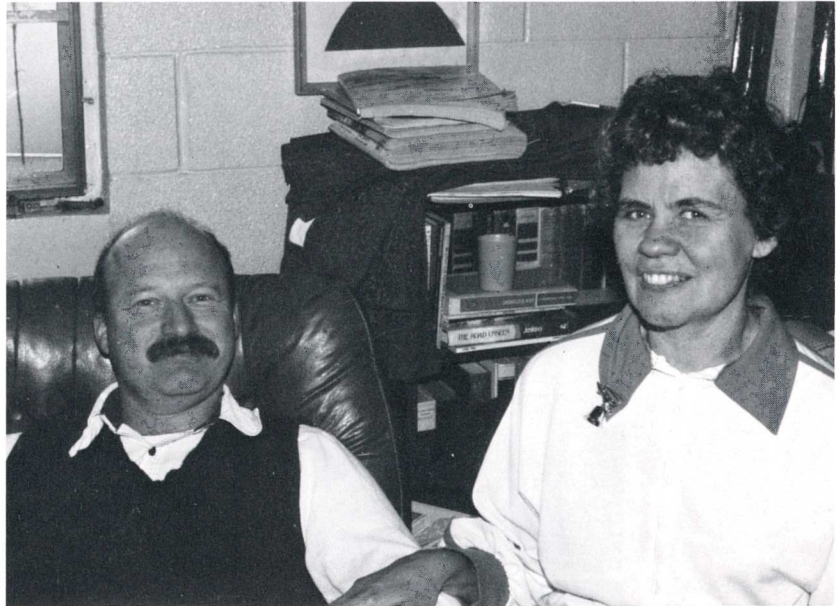

Leroy, as he likes to be called by students and faculty, helps a student in the classroom (top). Bro. Kirschenmann worships the Lord in chapel (bottom).

APPRECIATION

Betty Jo Hvistendahl

The seniors choose Betty Jo Hvistendahl for special honor and appreciation. Betty Jo possesses one of those rare quiet and meek spirits. Similarly, her work on campus is one of those quiet and behind the scenes jobs. She can be found in the basement of the library where she works on the computer. She is responsible for cataloging all of the books in our library. The results of her effort and hard work are seen in a proper and well organized library. She likes to stay busy all of the time. Complimenting her vocation, she is an avid reader and lover of books. She always has a sweet smile and is known as a prayer warrior. She is a familiar sight riding around town or across campus on her bike. Betty Jo Hvistendahl is a valuable and appreciated part of the Trinity family.

Betty Jo Hvistendahl relaxes at home with her husband Doug.

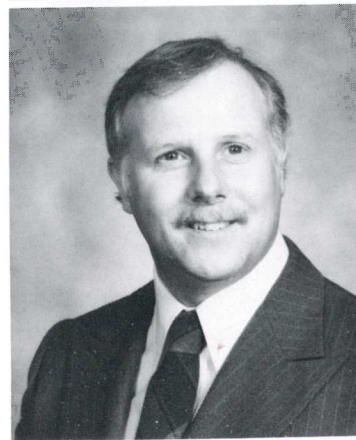

Betty Jo can be found working on the library computer.

TBC CHAPEL

Within Your Temple,
O God, We Meditate
On Your Unfailing
Love. Ps. 48:9

I came to Trinity with the idea that chapel services were a time where everyone got together, got preached at, and left. How wrong I was! Instead it is a time when people come together to get ministered to and sometimes even minister to others.

I went to chapel not expecting anything like the services I was used to. God surprised me by making the ones here even better. I haven't been to a service yet where lives weren't touched by His Spirit.

We need to stay on fire for God! His work in our lives has just begun.

WELCOME!

To Davidson Hall
We Believe God Is

Paul and Ava Davidson were married in 1940 and over the years were blessed with three children. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson are both graduates of Central Bible Institute, Springfield, Missouri. Paul came to TBI in Fall, 1969, and Ava came in 1971. On April 26, 1985 the freshmen women's dormitory, Davidson Hall, was dedicated to this fine couple who contributed so much to all who encountered them.

The residents of Davidson Hall celebrated Christmas together before ending a great first semester.

GUEST CHAPEL SPEAKERS

Roy and Arlene Brewer were the special speakers during Spiritual Emphasis. They shared concerning marriage and family.

Trinity Bible College is blessed each year with many exceptional and inspiring guest speakers. They speak in chapel services, special seminars, for College Days, for Missions Conventions, and Spiritual Emphasis. The faculty and students are challenged, refreshed, and ministered to. Some of the special speakers are regional pastors, officials from both districts and General Council. Missionaries from all over the world share their call and ministry. Special guest speakers and evangelists share as well. College Days brought to campus Sam Johnson, Paul Davidson, and Sam Farina. General Council officials have included General Superintendent G. Raymond Carlson and Dr. Ron Iwasko, Secretary for the Division of Foreign Missions. District Superintendent of North Dakota, Marcus Bakke, and of South Dakota, David Nelson were guests. A special prayer seminar was taught by Dick Eastman. Spiritual Emphasis featured Roy and Arlene Brewer.

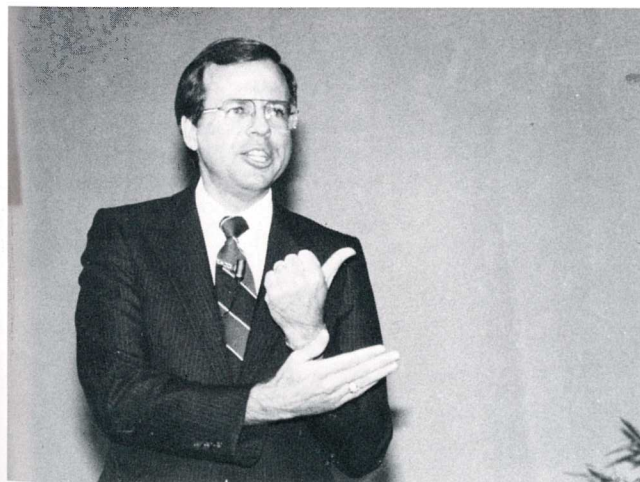

Dick Eastman brought his Change the World School of Prayer seminar to the Trinity Campus.

James Hessler, pastor of the Dickinson Assembly of God church, was one of several regional pastors who share in the chapel services. Bro. Hessler is the former Dean of Students at Trinity.

Ted Heaston shared with the student body in chapel. He is pastor of Evangel Temple in Bismark, North Dakota. He also serves as Assistant Superintendent of the North Dakota District.

Pastor Wes Brooks gives special emphasis to a sermon point as he preaches. He pastors in Minnesota.

Bro. Paul Davidson delivered a stirring message during the Homecoming Celebration.

Sam Johnson, pastor of Heritage Church at Heritage USA in Fort Mill, South Carolina. He is an alumnus of Trinity when it was known as Lakewood Park Bible School.

President Lowell Lundstrom poses with General Superintendent G. Raymond Carlson. Bro. Carlson came on campus to share during College Heritage Days.

COLLEGE DAYS '89

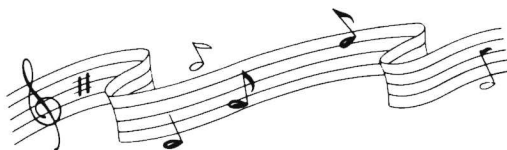

Bob Kilpatrick, "Mr. Sold Out and Radical," provided special music.

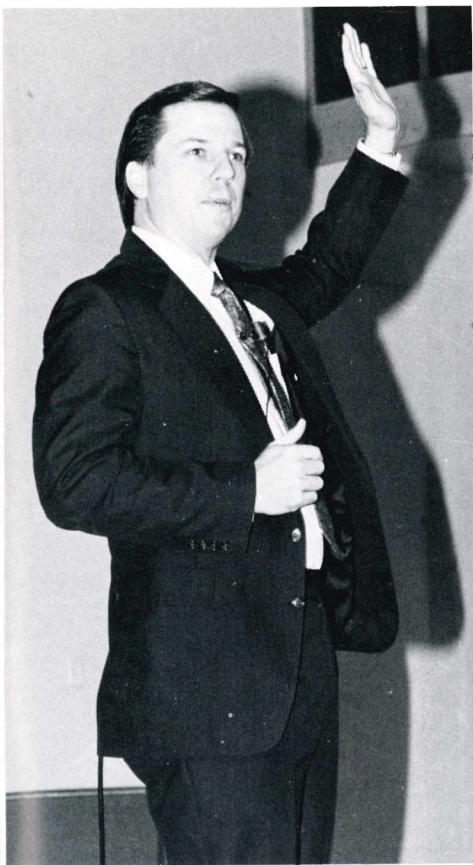

Once again, Trinity Bible College opened its campus to prospective students. Campus tours, classes, Saturday Night Alive and much more were included in this weekend of fun.

Sam Farina blessed many hearts as he shared from God's Word.

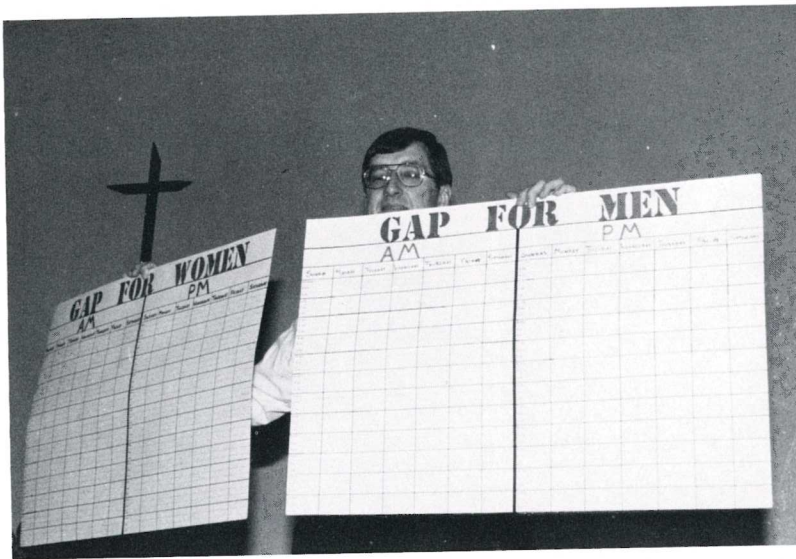

Come, let us worship together.

God's Word.

FILLING IN THE GAP

Dr. Kingsriter presents the sign-up posters for GAP ministry.

Faculty members pray with students seeking God's will.

Students lift each other up in prayer.

PRAISE REPORTS

Danny Schwartz gives his testimony.

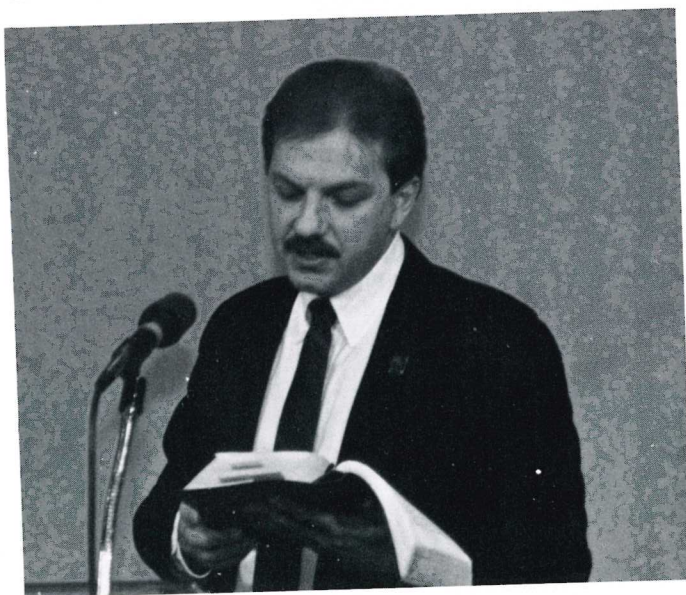

God truly inhabits the praise of His people.

"Go forth and teach all nations . . . "

TUNE IN TO GOD

TBC students sing their praise to the Lord everyday in chapel.

Missions Convention was a special blessing for all at TBC.

Chapel is a great place to hear God's Word.

TRINITY CAMPUS CHURCH

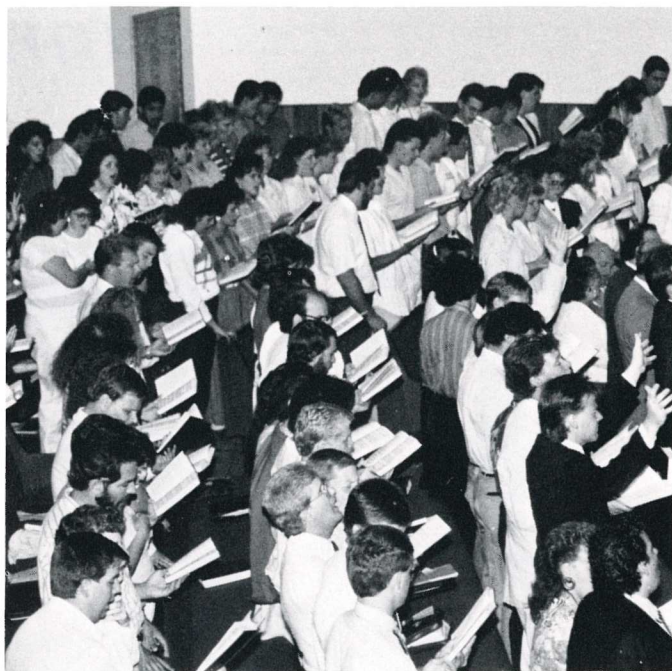

The Walter and Hattie Block Memorial Chapel, built in 1975, is located in the center of the campus. This imposing oval shaped modern brick structure is capped by a large cross which dominates the campus and its environs. The auditorium seats 750 people.

David Jones has been a pastor for 24 years. He serves as campus pastor at Trinity Campus Church and as a faculty member at Trinity Bible College.

In the summer of 1988, the Alumni Association funded the recarpeting of the chapel.

The congregation of Trinity Campus Church worships together.

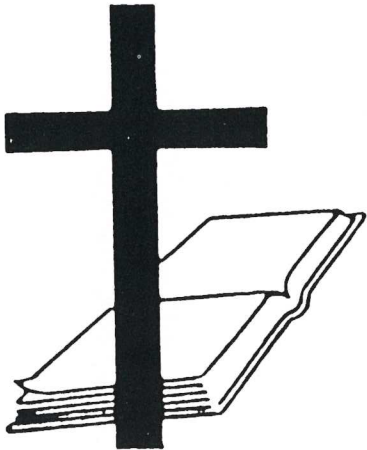

Trinity Chapel Choir shares special music.

Pastor Jones prays with a couple as they dedicate their baby.

YOUTH MINISTRY

"If there is anything we have been emphasizing this year, it would be unity, getting the kids bound together in the Spirit. This has prepared them for what goes on in school and has helped them to be powerful witnesses of what Christians really are. We've had great results!" Pastor Willis

Youth Pastor Roger Willis

Both students and teachers from TBC attended the youth baptism.

Remember your Creator in the days of your youth ... Ecclesiastes 12:1

Senior Jerry Michaelson baptizes Cindy Beck in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Seniors Lonnie Moeller and Danny Pucket help fellow students with their profession of faith.

(above) Senior Kevin Opatz, Vice President Maddox reflects on his years of ministry as he assists in the baptismal.

WE ARE AN OFFERING

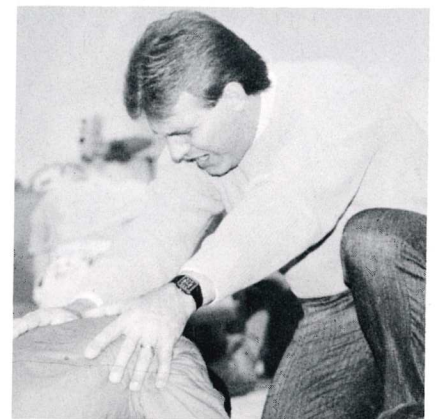

Danny Schwartz offers songs of joy to the Father.

Brother and sisters join hands to show that they are united in God's love.

Tom Moody offers silent praise to our Lord and King.

Brother Kuno shares the burden of a wounded soldier.

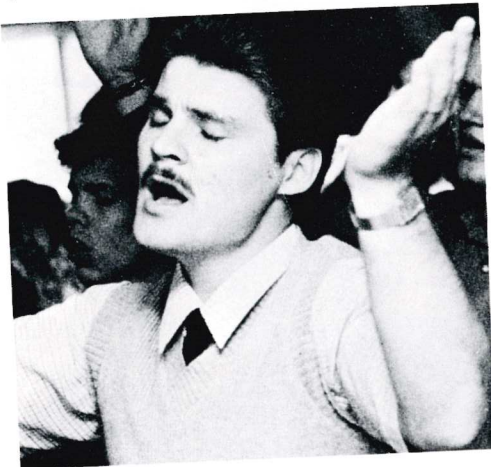

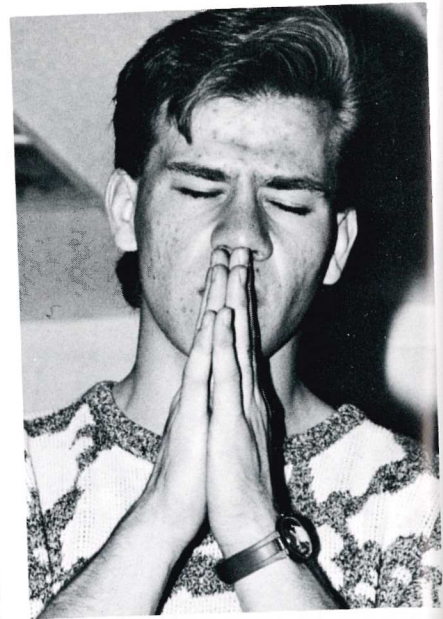

Claire Suderman comes to the altar to seek God.

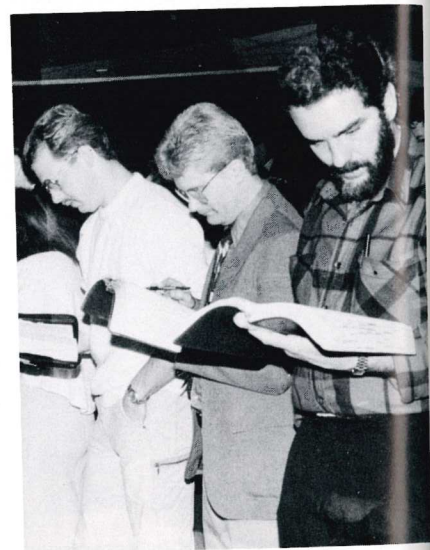

Lori Esch enjoys the presence of our Lord.

As Greg Cook worships, he is filled with everlasting joy.

Praising the Lord is natural for Candace Brotzman and Kevin Lindgren.

"The football team did a fantastic job, the Lord moved through the team greater than ever. This year we've also had the best record ever! Because of our success, we have finally gained the respect of other teams," states #31 Larry Agee. An incredible year for TBC ended with a 6-2-1 record that left players and fans proud and thankful. Thankful for the games won, but more importantly for the hearts won through the ministry of the team. Coach Tatum sums the year up best: "Our football program is maturing with greater numbers of players possessing more experience and talent. The Lord has blessed our efforts to keep Him first in our play. Football is a great tool for ministry and very valuable in making character-building fun. Our athletes respond enthusiastically to our Total Release philosophy with loving, caring teammates."

CROSS COUNTRY

Donald Selleck, Tom Vanderpol, Avery Burton, Kerry Hutchinson.

Pat Gibson gives it all he's got!

The Cross Country team this year was short on members but that didn't affect the quality of this team. When the TBC Cross Country team ran, they ran with determination and skill. However, more importantly they ran giving all the glory to God.

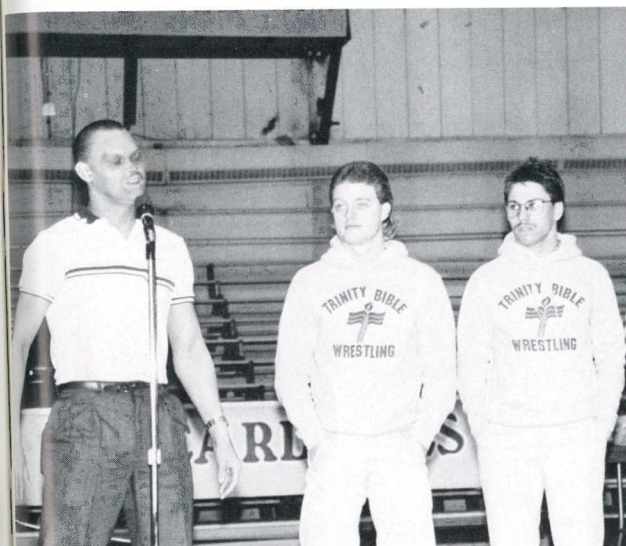

WRESTLING

Showing their worst is: Doug, Pat, Jeff, Bob and Roy.

Demonstrating a wrestling move is John and Steve.

Roy Weathers the wrestling coach speaking at a pep rally.

"TBC Wrestling," says Roy Weathers, "in 1988-89 has been challenging, fun, and God has had His hand on our team. 1988 started with just five members. We may have been mighty in numbers, but we were mighty in God's eyes." Even though the wrestling team had to be cut financially from the school, these members started their grueling practices in November which kept preparing them physically, mentally, and spiritually throughout the season. They started their season with a tournament in Wahpeton, N.D., in which they did quite well. The Spring Semester blessed the team with two new members, John Liberty and Chris Volking, which are great additions. Bob Kaumans, Roy Weathers, John Liberty, and Chris Volking will represent Trinity. "I know that with God directing us we all will make our presence known."

IN MEMORY
MARK MERLAK

JANUARY 1968 - MAY, 1988

Since I am coming to that holy room
Where, with Thy choir of saints for evermore
I shall be made Thy music; as I come
I tune the instrument here at the door
And what I must do then, think here before.

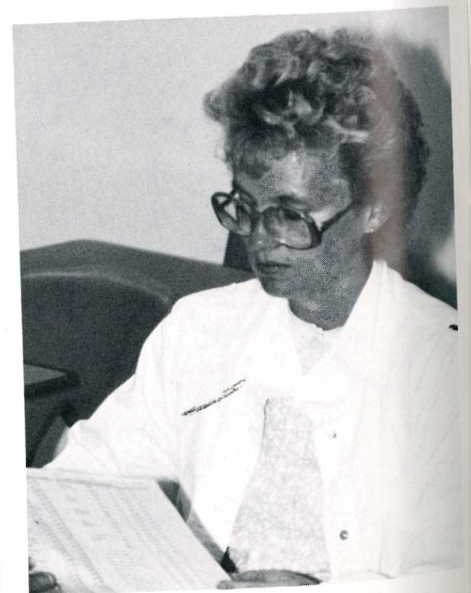

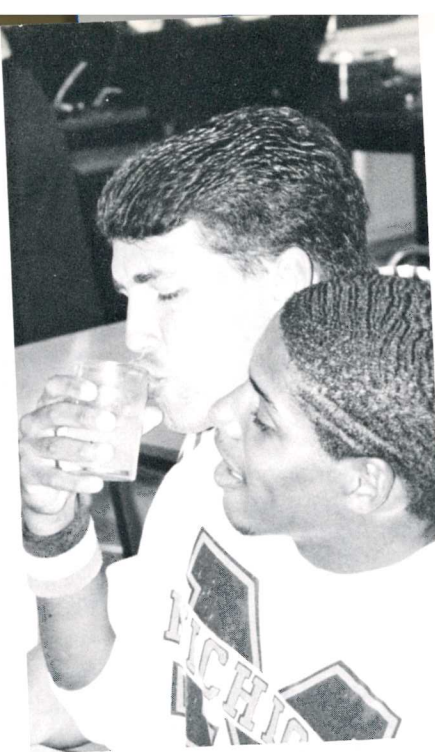

We think that Paradise and Calvary,
Christ's cross, and Adam's tree, stood in one place;
Look, Lord and find both Adams met in me;
As the first Adam's sweat surrounds my face,
May the last Adam's blood my soul embrace.

So, in the purple wrapped, receive me, Lord;
By these His thorns give me His other crown;
And, as to others' souls I preached They Word,
Be this my text, my sermon to mine own:
Therefore that He may raise the Lord throws down.

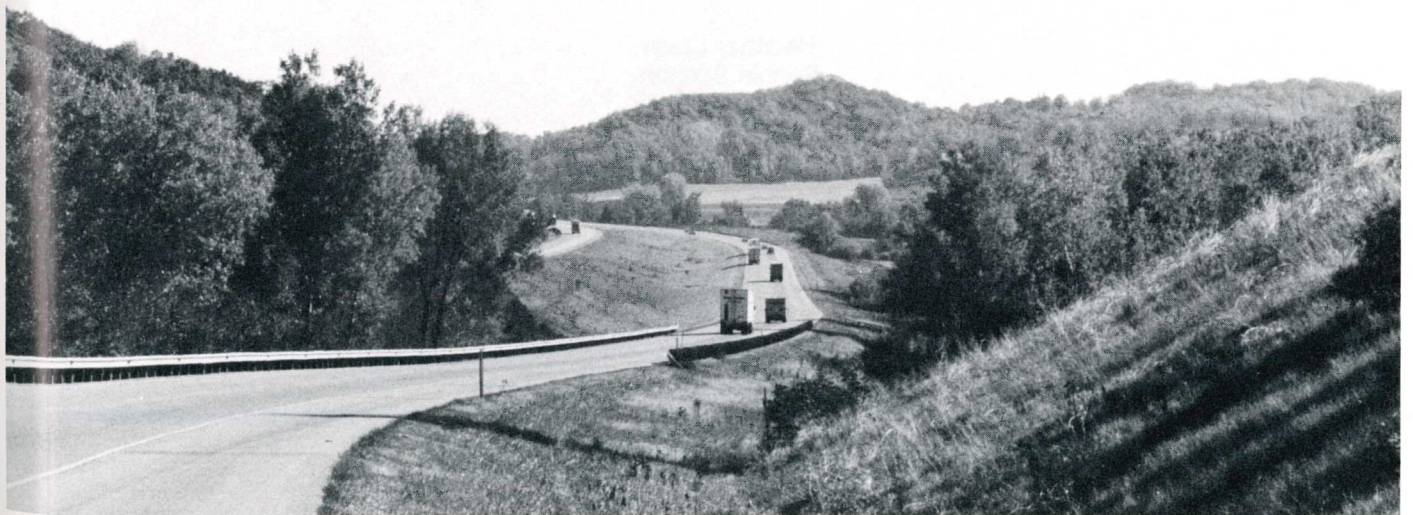

John Donne

This past year we lost a close friend. Many of his fellow students admired him for his determination and outlook to the future. Mark kept setting goals and he continued to obtain them through persistence; although he knew what the future held for him. We want to take this time to remember Mark with love.
