Who We Are

The year 1998 marks the 50th anniversary of Trinity Bible College. In 1948, a local North Dakota pastor had a vision from God. With the support of Rev. G.L. Rife and Rev. W.H. Kesler, Mr. L.E. Englar founded Lakewood Park Bible School. In 1948, the school opened its doors in Devils Lake, North Dakota, with a mere 18 students enrolled. Soon the enrollment grew and the facilities at Lakewood were no longer large enough. By the grace of God an opportunity arose for the facility to move to Aberdeen, South Dakota. In the fall of 1960, Hub City Bible Institute opened. Through the years, the enrollment grew tremendously until the facilities in Aberdeen were no longer large enough either. Then the former Trinity Hospital in Jamestown, North Dakota closed and the building was purchased. The school moved to Jamestown and opened its doors in 1967, under the new name Trinity Bible Institute. The enrollment by this time was at 183 students. The enrollment continued to grow and the facilities soon became too small.

Through faith and prayer and by the grace of God, an opportunity came up to purchase the old University of North Dakota--Ellendale branch, in Ellendale. In 1972, the facilities were purchased for a single dollar. The school opened in 1972, with enrollment at 333 students first semester. In 1983, the school recognizing its accreditation status, was finally renamed Trinity Bible College.

Today, 50 years later, the school still stands through prayer and faith, as a place of preparation for men and women for the ministry and mission of Jesus Christ.

Graduation

It is the end, yet the beginning.
It is the lessons learned, yet the lessons still to be learned.
It is the mark of wisdom, yet the true beginning of knowledge.

It is a step of faith, yet the fear of the unknown.
It is the day of good-bye, yet the beginning of hello.
It is the finish of a start, yet the start of a finish.

His Voice

What is this place we call TBC? Is it the lounge of the secular or the home of the free? Seeing many people with different faces, and how they travel far from many places. "Why are we here?" some of us say. Others know we live day by day. There are those called by God's loving voice, and because of this, they rejoice.

We have the pastors, missionaries, and the teachers, then the evangelists, students and the preachers. Every once in a while, I see someone repairing the breach. They are the ones that I know are trying to reach. The opportunities of friendship is virtually endless and so overwhelming, it's utterly helpless. This is really cool, to know our God does rule. Sending us once again to a place called school.

Who we are, and who we will be, is up to Christ and how we see. For the seniors. . . God bless you! The juniors, you know what to do. The sophomores, remain true. And the freshmen, live how God wants you to. For all the rest, may you in Christ be forever blessed.

Let us all live as one. Let us all live as God's Son. The one who set us free so we can see, not in condemnation, but in justification. Let us live by His choice. Let us live by His voice.

Learning and Growing

Isn't it a great thing to see how we all are. To know that God can take us to a place afar. What we think is our limit, is really our start, to know that God is the holder of our heart. We can be strong, when we do His ministries, knowing that He controls our destinies.

All of the teaching we teach, and the lost generations we reach, is for the One who is God, in Him we should beseech. Let us go to God everyone. Let us seek His face, like His Son's. These are for the lessons that we are learning, to ask the Lord for His gift of discerning.

To see some singing new songs, and others avoiding old wrongs. Years of love, and tears from above.

A smile on a face for a heavenly place. The drama team gives its gleaming light. The prisoners are saved by a wonderful sight. Our singers go to let the people know that there is a better life to live and show.

What a beautiful melody to act and to be, as we all are put here to finally see, the lost and the crying and all those who are dying. The children that are sighing and the teens who are lying. For it is an awesome thing to know that our God loves us so.

For He is the one who has told us to GO! Jesus is our King. In Him we do sing. To the eternal God, our might and light . . . our strength and rod.

Plankinton Prison Ministry

The Prison Ministry team travels to prisons, penitentiaries and work farms to tell the inmates that God is not restricted by bars and that Jesus Christ can meet them right where they are, if they only believe. Behind this is the understanding that institutions cannot rehabilitate prisoners. Only the power of God can change a man's heart and bring true rehabilitation. The means of presentation are preaching, testimonies, skits and song. The group also holds church meetings to share what God is doing.

The Native American Ministry team ministers at churches and reservations in North and South Dakota and Minnesota. Christ is shared with both Indians and whites of all ages through preaching, teaching, drama, music, door-to-door, street witnessing and testimony. Trinity's location offers a unique opportunity to reach out to these people, many of whom are still in bondage to traditional beliefs.

Hearts A Flame

Hearts A Flame is the inner-city ministry. Twice a year (fall and spring break) this ministry travels to a city in the United States. The group works with a pastor or organization in the city in order to best serve that area. Many times ministry includes street witnessing, door-to-door evangelism, or helping the pastor in various responsibilities. This ministry seeks to share Jesus with a lost world. It will also bring awareness to the students who participate, of the need to evangelize and minister to the inner-cities of America.

One Hope

One Hope is a drama team designed solely for the purpose of going into prisons and jailhouses to minister to inmates. They have written their own skits to address questions and problems faced by prisoners and ultimately leading them to salvation, as well as helping them grow spiritually. The team is based on prayer and devotion to Christ, the sole strength of the team. The usual services includes a skit, followed by a sermon. The whole thought behind this ministry is to minister in an organized church setting and to the needy. The name One Hope is derived from the lack of hope seen in prisoners, thus bringing them to the knowledge of the One Hope we have in Jesus Christ.

Evangelism Ministry

Evangelism takes on a diversity of ministry forms. Included are street ministry, door-to-door evangelism and invasion teams. Street ministry takes you to the lost wherever they may be. Using one-on-one witnessing and tracts, many are won to the Lord each year on street corners, in malls and at rock concerts. Teams are also organized to work with individual churches and prepare their members to evangelize their communities by using door-to-door evangelism. Invasion teams go out several times a semester to surrounding communities. Going door-to-door, general spiritual climate surveys are taken or the Gospel may be presented.

Gap

Gap is a prayer ministry that meets weekly to intercede for needs nearby and at a distance. The ministry promotes an emphasis of prayer on the campus and area churches. Prayer rooms are maintained in every resident hall. Prayer walk retreats, and seminars are held in participating communities. The Gap Prayer Ministry is a 24 hour ministry designed to provide intercessory prayer for the Trinity Bible College family of students, faculty and staff. The Gap Prayer Ministry provides a vital resource of concerned individuals willing to sacrifice their time on behalf of numerous needs that are expressed through prayer request.

Discipleship

This campus ministry cares for and mentors newly saved individuals. It practices the biblical principles of guiding and discipling those new in Christ.

Family Fellowship

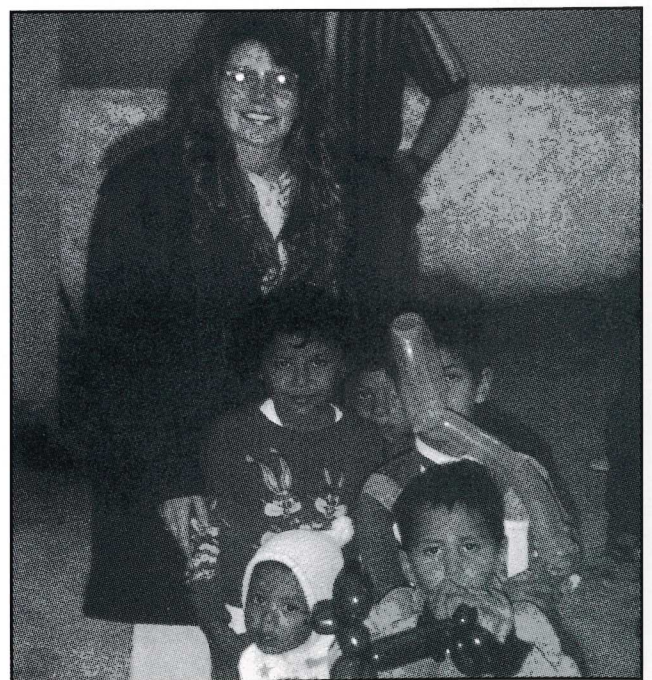

This group was formed to minister to the married, and single parent families here at Trinity Bible College. The purpose of Family Fellowship is to create fellowship opportunities among married students, families, faculty, and staff.

Areopagus

Areopagus is a ministry group that endeavors to gain entry into secular schools and universities for the purpose of discussing relevant issues in the area of ethics, philosophy, and religion, with the hope of causing self-examination of Christians and non-Christians alike as to what is believed, and why it is believed. It is our intent to present Christianity as a rational, reasonable world-view, which stands alone in its ability to comprehensively answer the meaningful questions of man.

Missions Outreach

This ministry is for those who are called to the mission field or who have a burden for world evangelization. Meetings are held bi-monthly for worship, prayer, special speakers, videos, films and informative sessions. These are designed to further develop a burden for the mission field. This team ministers to those in the inner city, on reservations, and in churches within the area. Missions Outreach is also the ministry responsible for promotion and awareness of missions on campus.

Senior Carla Schwartz ministers to some children on the 1997 Mexico trip.

ATHLETICS

FALL '97 FOOTBALL TEAM

Although they had a 0-9 season, the spiritual life and virtue of the '97 football team will be remembered.

FALL '97 VOLLEYBALL TEAM

Coach Wagler likes to say that heart is what made this year's team. The '97 volleyball team had a record of 10-15.

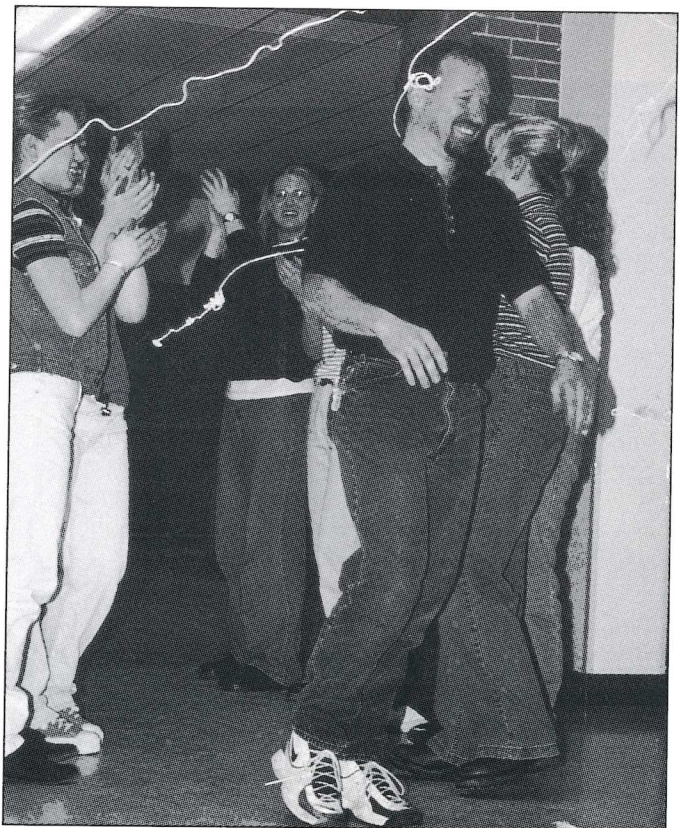

ATHLETICS

97-98 MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM

Coach Keith Wagler led the '97-'98 men's basketball team to one of their best seasons. With a 16-17 record, they went into the regional championship and came out in victory.

TBC gave the men's basketball team a warm welcome home after they returned as regional champs.

ATHLETICS

97-98 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM

A young team was a way to describe the '97 women's basketball season. With a 7-15 record, the women went down fighting. However, the youth of this team means that they will come back next year even stronger.

Athletics

The purpose of Trinity's athletic teams is to spread the Gospel by way of athletics. Trinity athletes strive not only to be good representatives of the school, but Jesus Christ as well. Each team participates in team devotions and worship. The athletes will also have opportunities to minister in churches, nursing homes and other various places while traveling.
